

When A Nation Is Not A Nation

Before I begin this message I would like to make it very clear to all of the immigrants, wherever they may come from originally and whatever `colour` they may be, who are now living in this country and have embraced our culture and our `christian`/ Jewish*(See below) religion (however flawed it is at this present time) and who obey and respect our laws (however flawed and unjust they are at this present time) and who have made the effort to merge in with the indigenous British people, the direction of this message does not, indeed cannot apply to any of you in any way different than it applies to the indigenous people of this country. The scriptures tell us that the `stranger` who has accepted the culture of the people amongst whom he or she now lives is to be considered and treated as one born amongst them. But like most things promised by God, it is conditional, and these conditions relating to promises apply to all the people, not just to the immigrant or to the `stranger`. Let`s have a read of Isaiah 56: 1-8. `Thus says the Lord, keep you judgment and do justice, for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. Blessed is the man that does this and the son of man that lays hold on it, that keeps the Sabbath from polluting it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil. Neither let the son of the stranger that has joined himself to the Lord, speak saying, the Lord has utterly separated me from His people, neither let the eunuch say, behold I am a dry tree. For thus says the Lord to the eunuchs that keep My Sabbaths, and choose the things that please Me, and hold fast by My covenant. Even to them I will give inside My house and inside My walls, a place and a name better than that of sons and of daughters, I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger that join themselves to the Lord, to serve Him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be His servants, everyone that keeps the Sabbath, from polluting it, and takes hold of My covenant. Even them will I bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer, their burned offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon My altar, for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. The Lord God which gathers the outcasts of Israel says, Yet will I gather others to him (that is to Israel) beside those that are gathered to him.` Now let`s read Isaiah 14: 1. `For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land, and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall join to the house of Jacob.` (* I have included the Jewish `religion` because of what the scriptures say, let`s have a read of Romans 3: 1-2. `What advantage then has the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much, every way, mainly because that to them, were committed the laws of God.` And now we`ll read Ezekiel 37: 19. `Thus says the Lord God, Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, (the Jews) and make them one stick, and they shall be one in My hand.` now verse 22. `I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel, and one king shall be king to them all, and they shall no longer be two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more.` now verse 24. `And David, My servant, shall be king over them, and they all shall have one Shepherd, they shall also walk in My judgments, and observe My statutes, and do them.`) Now although I am writing this message from a British point of view, I know that those reading this who live in, America, Australia, Canada and New Zealand, are having the same things happen in their respective countries and to a similar degree. So, `When is a Nation Not a Nation?` well let`s begin proper with a look at Isaiah 1: 4 and 7. `Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil doers, children that are corrupters, they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the holy One of Israel to anger, they have turned from Him. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire, as for your land, strangers strip it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.` Not so very long ago, I was listening to a morning programme put out by the Babylonian Broadcasting Corporation, otherwise known as the BBC, and on it a reporter asked a man, (who I presume was qualified enough to answer intelligently), whether or not, in his opinion, the influx into London of immigrants had had the effect of making certain areas of the British capital totally non-indigenous, and as a consequence of this, non-English speaking and non-British, and anyway, that if this was the case, did it really matter ? And the obviously taken aback man`s tactful reply? `Well, only somebody from the BBC could have asked a question like that`. And you know it`s right what he replied, because the news media and the politicians of this once prosperous country would have us all believe that everybody is getting on with everybody else and it`s all going `swimmingly` and yes, all the immigrants are adapting to or are trying to adapt in one way or another to our society, culture, religion, schooling, laws, ways of hygiene and language and if they are not, well it doesn`t matter, it`s only a question of time and it will all work out just fine. Wrong! Many of Britain`s indigenous communities have already drowned and been swept away in a tidal wave of strange and foreign anti-Christian laws and customs. For instance, in some British schools there are over 38 different languages being spoken by the children attending these schools and very few have English as their main form of communication and many of their adult family members have no intention of even bothering to learn the mother language of their host country and what is more worrying is the fact that they can get by very well thank you very much, without ever having to utter a word of English! Now there was also on this programme the by now seemingly obligatory invited, effeminate and delicate supporter of the unworkable dream, this time in the shape and form of a headmaster whose main purpose it would seem was to champion the cause of `diversity`. This then basically was his view on the chaotic and potentially dangerous situation ; `multiculturalism equals diversity`. Yes it certainly does, and diversity in the shape and form of multiculturalism within a nation equals division! Remember the tower of Babel? Let`s remind ourselves as to exactly why the Lord God created so many different languages at that time and at that place, the scripture that we need to read is Genesis 11: 1-9. `And the whole earth was of one language and of one speech.` now to verse 3. `And they said to one another, let`s make bricks and heat them thoroughly, so they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. And they said, let us build a city, and a tower whose top may reach to heaven, and let us make us a name lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the children of men had built. And the Lord said: Behold, the people are one and they all share the same language, and this they begin to do, and now nothing will be restrained from them which they have imagined to do. Come, let us go down and confuse their language, so that they do not understand one another. So the Lord scattered them abroad from there, upon the face of the whole earth, and they ceased to build the city. Therefore the name of it is called, Babel, (meaning confusion) because it was there that the Lord confused the language of all the earth. And from there the Lord scattered them over the whole face of the earth.` Confusion, that is what results simply from many different languages being spoken, so add `multiculturalism` to the mix as well and then what should we expect to get? Remember, the Lord did not intend by what He did to simply create diversity! Now we`ll have a look at Joshua 23: 4-7. `Behold I have divided to you by lot, these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have destroyed, even to the Mediterranean westward, and the Lord your God, He shall expel them from before you, and

drive them from out of your sight, and you shall possess their land, as the Lord your God has promised you. Be you therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left, so that you do not come amongst these nations that remain among you, neither make mention of the names of their gods, nor swear by them or serve them, nor bow yourselves down to them. and now most importantly to verses 11-13. Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love the Lord your God. Because if you in any way return and cling to the remnant of these nations, even these that are amongst you, and you make marriages with them, and associate with them, and they with you, then know for a certainty, that the Lord your God will no longer drive out any of these nations from before you, but they shall be snares and traps to you, and a whip on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the Lord your God has given you. Now I'll combine that scripture with Hosea 7: 8-9. but before we go there I would just like to mention for those who may not know, that `Ephriam`, mentioned in this next scripture, is in fact modern day Britain and it's associated `brother` countries ie. Australia, Canada, New Zealand. (For further information on this please contact us using the `contact us` form that you can find using the menu page) so, Hosea 7: 8-9. `Ephriam, he has mixed himself amongst the nations, he is as a cake not turned, strangers have devoured his strength, and he knows it not, yes, grey hairs are here and there upon him, and he does not realise it.` Remember that which we read in Joshua 23: 13, `...the Lord God will no longer drive out any of these nations from before you, but they shall be snares and traps to you, and a whip on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land. . .` This is a very stark warning for Britain's already settled and law abiding immigrants and indigenous inhabitants, so let's consider this, when is a warning no longer any use as a warning? well of course, when it is realised and heeded too late. So is there still time to rectify the current situation? Well, as long as God's true church is around and giving out this warning then of course there will still be time to for the ruling government and for this country's clergy to act, put a stop to the rot, but it must start right now because God's true church is not getting any bigger and those of us who are left within it grow old, and as I write there is no evidence of any young `blood` coming into the church. So, from these simple facts alone, the reader should be able to work out for themselves just how long it may be before the `non-intergrating immigrant` situation becomes irreversible and even intolerable, especially for those who want to practice true Christian worship, because as more and more so-called `christians` begin to leave this country for a more accommodating one it results in the government allowing in more and more non-Christian and even anti-Christian immigrants to keep the population figures `topped up`. It has become a very vicious circle. Another fact to be concerned about is that most of these non-integrating immigrant families have no intention of exercising any kind of birth control or family planning, five children and more is not uncommon for them and they begin to place an ever increasing burden on an already buckling health service which is stretched to it's limits by tending to immigrants coming into this country with contagious diseases such as TB and/or AIDS or with their congenital health problems which are then passed on to the next generation who in turn will need treatment and so it goes on. Many reading this will already know what has happened in certain areas of this country such as Bradford in Yorkshire and Burnley in Lancashire and whole districts and electoral wards in London and other major cities. It can start with just one uncompromising and non-integrating immigrant family in one street, they have no intention whatsoever of trying to become part of the ways of the country in which they now live, they upset their neighbours by carrying on with their `third world` customs and habits and they are protected by the various

`laws` of this country, and then no surprise, the `for sale` signs soon start to appear and then the only people who would want to live next door to these kind of immigrants are, you've guessed it, more of the same non-integrating immigrants. And so it has continued over the years, street by street, neighbourhood by neighbourhood, district by district until whole towns have now become unrecognisable as being in any way British. Churches have been pulled down and mosques have been erected, complain and you will be branded as `racist`, whatever that's supposed to mean in this respect, after all, do I have a race, or don't I? and if I do, who is protecting my race? `Oh, it can't be that bad`, some will say, well it is, as more and more footholds are gained by these immigrants, first the houses then the shops then the council offices until now, thirty or more years `down the line` from when it first started we have whole towns being run by immigrants who now have within their communities their own `laws` their own religions their own dress code and who resent the very presence of anybody who even looks British. These immigrant communities have a very strong sense of identity because they have brought their history and their way of life with them and they continue to live it, whereas in comparison the British sense of identity gets weaker and more obscure as the years go by, and no wonder, this `multicultural` society which has been forced upon us has created so much confusion and non-identity in the minds of the younger generations. In fact the word `multicultural` is in a sense a misnomer as it can in no way be applied to the non-integrating immigrants, for they are very obviously `monocultural` and as time goes by and the government and this country's clergy remain indifferent to the situation, if anybody were to succeed in doing away with `multiculturalism` it would, ironically, be the non-integrating immigrants themselves, because they will not stand for it if they get powerful enough. In not so many years from now, when only the children born in the late 1960`s and onwards are left alive, how many of them will still be able (or willing) to pick up a bible and claim that IT, is still the book upon which the laws of this once green and pleasant land, are founded? Because even as I write, many of those laws have been abolished or watered down to accommodate and appease the `feelings` of peoples from without our country's borders so that their customs and their laws may prevail within our country. Make no mistake, what certain countries have not been able to do throughout history by conquering us British in open warfare they are now succeeding in doing by the devious and treacherous means of the so-called European community. This country is in effect selling its `birthright. Is birthright really that important then? Well consider, without it there can be no interest or knowledge of ancestry or feeling of belonging or of achievement, and without these things there can be no togetherness of nation, no common thread that binds everybody together, and if this does not exist then there can be no country worth `fighting` for or any common values worth upholding. In short, its `everyone for themselves and damn the consequences. But British and foreign, power hungry dictators and politicians know this, therefore they will seek to supply a `history` that will seemingly bring the people together under a common theme, but this false sense of togetherness will not last, as it states in the book of Daniel where it tells us about the emergence of the fourth reich, pictorially described as a man`s body. (Remember Adolf Hitler`s reign was the third reich) So let`s read Daniel 2: 40-43. `And the fourth kingdom (reich) shall be as strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things, and as iron that breaks all of these, it shall break in pieces and bruise. And whereas you saw the feet and the toes made up of potter`s clay and iron, the kingdom shall be divided, but there shall be in it the strength of the iron, forasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with the wet clay, and as the toes of the feet were made part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken. And just as you saw the iron mixed with the wet clay, they shall interbreed, but they shall not bond with one another, even as iron cannot be mixed with clay.` Birthright, remember the biblical story of Esau? Let`s remind ourselves of just how important our great God considers birthright to be, we`ll read Genesis 25: 29-34. `And Jacob cooked stew, and Esau came in from the field feeling faint. And Esau said to Jacob, please give me some food, some of that same red stew, for I am faint. And Jacob said, Sell me this day your birthright, and Esau said, I am about to die, so what value is my birthright to me? And Jacob said, promise me this day, and Esau swear to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave him the stew and Esau did eat and drink, and rose up and went on his way, thus Esau despised his birthright.` Ok, so that is what happened, but now let`s read in the new testament what, hundreds of years later, is still remembered about this and in what manner this act of thanklessness towards God, (because that is what it is) is thought of and also the consequences of Esau`s action. We will read Hebrews 12: 14-17. `Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled. Lest there be any fornicator or Godless person such as Esau, who for one morsel of meat, sold his birthright. For you know that how afterward when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place of forgiveness, though he sought it carefully with tears.` So what were the repercussions and the consequences to be suffered by Esau and meted out by God, for what he had done? and should we suppose that like punishment (or even more severe) should also be given to and suffered by a whole nation that sells, or worse still, just hands over, its` birthright? Well, I will not say, but I will let the scriptures speak for themselves, let`s start with Malachi 1: 2-3. `I have loved you, says the Lord, and yet you say, Wherein have You loved us? Was not Esau Jacob`s brother? says the Lord, Yet I loved Jacob, and I hated Esau, and I laid his mountains and his inheritance waste for the jackels of the wilderness.` Now, the descendants of Esau are Edom, and if we read on in the book of Malachi, we will discover how the Lord dealt with them and we may begin to suspect how the Lord may then deal with, in time to come, the people of Britain if they give away their birthright. As we have read in the book of Hebrews, the important thing that comes with birthright is inheritance, and this is very important in the eyes of our God, He does not want just anybody claiming inheritance which is not, by bloodline or lawful descent, rightfully theirs, let`s read Ezekiel 46: 18. `Moreover the prince (the government) shall not take of the people`s inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession, but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession, so that my people are not scattered every man from his possession.` We can understand from these few scriptures that the Lord God finds the dismissal of birthright, as being a small thing, very offensive. For if we understand and believe that our God is working to a plan and that He has therefore ordained an order for certain events to occur and for an inherited destiny for certain peoples, then this plan must surely include the time and the order in which a person is born. What Esau did by selling his birthright was, in effect, to change his own destiny, and in a way saying to God, . . . `Nah, I didn`t much regard at this moment in time that which You have thoughtfully selected and given to me, so I traded it.` This is basically what Britain`s politicians are doing right now, they have treated our birthright with disdain, they have placed it on the open market and are trading it off bit by ever increasing bit and they have discovered that there is no shortage of takers! Sadly, I can now say with certainty that this island nation of Britain is crumbling, and this is what happens to any nation when it turns its` back on God and His laws, but especially a nation that is dear to God`s own heart. The scriptures are plentiful with examples of what happens to a nation when they reject almighty God, and turn their thoughts and their ways to the gods of other nations and creeds, nations who our great God has already forsaken because they long ago, had forsaken Him. Although on first reading of the scriptures these forsaken nations may appear to have always been so, but they were not, because if we were to trace each one right back to their origins where should you suppose we would end up? Well, to cut it short we would of course go back to Noah and his descendants and before him to Adam and Eve. We can read of Noah and his descendants and the subsequent nations that sprang from them in the whole of Genesis 10. Further on in the book of Genesis we can read that every nation was to be blessed by God, because from that time on every nation on earth was to benefit from the seed of Isaac. Let`s read Genesis 26: 2-5. `And the Lord appeared to Isaac and said; Do not go down into the land of Egypt, dwell in the land which I shall tell you of, sojourn in this land and I will be with you, and will bless you, for to you and to your seed I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath that I swear to Abraham your father. And I will make your seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give to your seed all these countries, and in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because Abraham obeyed My voice, and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.` So between then and now, obviously, something has gone terribly wrong, and this `wrong` is still amongst us to this day, only magnified many thousands of times more because the billions and billions of peoples who now make up the world`s nations have become, for the most part, an abomination in the sight of our Lord God because of their rejection of His laws, and because of their idolatry, and their treatment of each other and their hatred of nations that do not fall in with their own Satanic practices which are many and varied, some even taking on the shape and form of `christianity`. The world`s nations, because of the `global village` phenom, are starting to resemble each other more and more and the world is drifting, ever rapidly, back to the mind- set that it had at the time of the tower of Babel. God is finding it more and more difficult to make a clear distinction amongst the nations and their peoples and the English language is now almost the whole world`s common communicator. For example, where God once favoured Britain because it was at least trying to be Christian and in some ways succeeding, He now finds that it has accepted multiculturalism and that true Christianity is becoming something of a rarity as other `religions` begin to usurp it and take its` place, and that what `christianity` is left, is merely a Satanicly inspired money-making people-pleasing, imitation. In short, God`s once favoured nations have now sunk to the level and the depths of His unfavoured ones. And the consequences of this backsliding are to be dire! We shall now have a read of some scriptures to make us mindful of these things, first, Exodus 34: 12-16. `Take heed to yourself lest you make an agreement with the inhabitants of the land where you go, lest it become a trap in the midst of you. You shall destroy their altars and break their idols and cut down their groves. You shall not worship any other God, because the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. Less you make an agreement with the inhabitants of the land and go a whoring after their gods and do sacrifice to their gods, and one call you and you eat of his sacrifice. And you begin to take of their daughters to your sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make your sons go a whoring after their gods.` and now we`ll merge that scripture with Leviticus 18: 26-30. `You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations, neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that lives amongst you. (For all these abominations have the men of the land committed that were before you, and the land is defiled). That the, land spew you not out also, when you defile it, as it spewed out the nations that were before you. For whosoever commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be destroyed from among their people. Therefore you shall keep My laws so that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you and that you do not defile yourselves therein. I Am, the Lord, your God.` Can we see, on looking back at this scripture, how the land of Britain is at this very moment in time, `spewing out` its` indigenous peoples? and that the void in the belly, as it were, is being filled by people who are non-British and have no intention whatsoever of even trying to become British or of allowing their offspring to become British. They have, as mentioned earlier in this message, brought with them their own laws, language, religion, customs and even their own means of education and they certainly have no intention of ever forsaking them. `If this is so`, I can almost hear the leaders and the congregations of the so-called `christian` churches of this country cry out, `If this is so, then why is the Lord doing this to us? Well in order to answer that question we`ll read a scripture from the book of Deuteronomy and we shall discover that it is the very way in which the leaders and the ministers and the priests of this country`s false `christian` churches have led the people astray by practising their concocted rites and ceremonies and by keeping their `sun` days and their invented `holy` days that has so offended our great God. Let`s read Deuteronomy 4: 25-28. When you have fathered children and children`s children and have remained long in the land, and you corrupt yourselves and make a graven image or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger; I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereto you go over Jordan to possess it, (This applies to any land that God`s peoples go to live in not just Jordon) you shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. And the Lord shall scatter you amongst the nations, (Or the nations amongst you) and you shall be left few in number amongst the heathen, where the Lord shall lead you. And there you shall serve gods, the work of men`s hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.` But even at this late hour, in these `latter days` in which we now find ourselves, even now there is still hope, but only if there is a massive turn around of the `mind set` of the British people, still in Deuteronomy, let`s read on, Deuteronomy 4: 29-31. `But if from there you shall seek the Lord your God, and you shall find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. When you are in tribulation and all of these things come upon you, in the latter days, if you turn to the Lord your God, and shall be obedient to His voice (For the Lord your God is a merciful God) He will not forsake you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swear to them. And although the church leaders and the priests and the ministers in this country of Britain are to blame for the disgraceful charade that `christian` worship has now become, the people themselves are not totally blameless, it`s of no use to them to think that they are the ones who have been utterly deceived without there having been any warning of just exactly what was and is going on and that therefore they are all going to get off `scot free`. The people of this country and other so-called `christian` countries have been lazy and without due diligence when it has come to the worship and the knowledge of the Lord God, it`s not as though the reading of the bible for themselves has been prohibited. (Yet!) They have been so complacent in their attitude towards their Creator and His promises of reward and/or punishment, that they have allowed their clergy to take charge of and control of their very salvation! Some may disagree and say that it is the politicians who have got the British nation into this mess, well, the bottom line is this, if the people had not forsaken the Lord God in the first place, then these politicians would never have existed! Such is the ignorance of the British people about God the Father and God the Son, that we now have generations of men, women and children who have never even heard of Them and if by any chance they have, then They are just another two names that appear on a long list of names from a barely remembered or understood history of the true origins of this world and the people who dwell upon it. And so, sadly, we are

were we are in this country of Britain, we are witnessing the overrunning of our land by strangers in the form of non-integrating immigrants, and make no mistake, these immigrants are of a totally different `mind set` than the immigrants who do come to this country willing and wanting to become British and accept our laws and `christian` religion (no matter how flawed) and generally the British way of life. Of course this country does have more than its `fair share` of `bleeding heart liberals` and `do gooders` who will bleat and protest the loudest about articles like this and are only too ready and too willing to embrace any culture or religion no matter how directly opposed to true Christianity it may be just as long as it is `different` or `exotic` or seemingly `harmless` and especially if it is `eastern` in its `origin` and ways. Now `speaking` of eastern ways, we`ll now have a look at some scripture regarding these `ways`, but let`s first understand that many of these scriptural prophecies are `types`, that is to say types of things and events that will affect the whole of the people of `Israel`, (Israel being Britain, USA, Australia, NZ. etc.) even though in any given example a specific tribe or area may be named, so with this in mind let`s go to Isaiah 2: 6. `Therefore You (The Lord) have foresaken Your people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers`. Now let`s read Ezekiel 8: 16. `And he brought me into the inner court of the Lord`s house, and behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs towards the temple of the Lord, and their faces towards the east, and they worshipped the sun towards the east.` And now a bit further on in the same book, Ezekiel 25: 4. `Behold, therefore I will deliver you to the men of the east as a possession, and they shall set their palaces in you, and make their dwellings in you, they shall eat your fruit and shall drink your milk.` To in a way sum up the effects of these prophecies we`ll go back a few pages to Ezekiel 17: 1-10. `And the word of the Lord came to me saying; Son of man, put forth a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel and say; Thus says the Lord God; A great eagle with great wings, long winged and full of feathers, which had various colours, came to Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar. He cropped off the top of its` young twigs and carried it into a land of trade, he set it in a city of merchants. He took also of the seed of the land and planted it in a fruitful field, he placed it by great waters and set it as a willow tree. And it grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned towards him, and the roots thereof were under him, so it became a vine and brought forth branches and shot forth sprigs. There was also another great eagle, with great wings and many feathers, and behold, this vine did bend her roots towards him, and shot forth her branches towards him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. It was planted in a good soil by great waters so that it might grow and bring forth branches and that it might bear fruit and be a goodly vine. What do you think? Thus says the Lord God, shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof and cut off the fruit thereof so that it wither? It shall wither, in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. Yes, being planted shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the furrows were it grew.` There is, as we should understand from the reading of that last scripture, a very great danger that if left unchecked, this nation made up of British peoples, because of `eastern ways` which have been allowed to start to flourish because of Britain`s abandonment of the Lord God and His commandments, will soon, not much later from now, cease to exist. Let`s read Hosea 8: 7-12. `For they have sown the wind and they shall reap the whirlwind, it has no stalk, the bud will yield no meal, and if it did yield meal, then the strangers shall swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up, now they shall be amongst the nations as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. For they have gone to Assyria, (Modern day Germany) a wild ass alone by himself, Ephraim (Specifically Britain) has paid for lovers. Yes they have hired from amongst the nations and now I shall gather them, they will sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes. Because Ephraim has made many altars dedicated to sin, altars shall be to him to sin. I have written to him the great things of My law, but they were regarded as a strange thing.` So these scriptures may well prophesise our fate as a nation, it is not yet too late to stop the rot, but honestly, what do you think are the chances that this or any other elected government and /or the so-called `christian` churches will get their `act` sufficiently together to bring about a HUGE `U` turn and convince the British people that they should stop the way of their Godless and lawless behaviour and once again turn to the Lord with all of their heart and all their might? I would like to make it clear though that the situation regarding these non-integrating immigrants must be dealt with in a true Christian manner, and not as a certain Adolf Hitler once did when faced with what he thought was a similar situation. We should remember that it is not the immigrants who are totally to blame, they have not waged and won a physical war and thereby overrun us, they are not the ones who have made progressively bad laws one after another, after another, they are not to blame for the ones who really govern this country from a place across the English channel, they are not the ones who hold the sway and the power over the European community, they are not the ones who have brought the very wrath of God upon this country because of its` lawlessness` and the ever increasing Pagan ways of its` inhabitants` no, they are merely some of the instruments of our self imposed demise. Let`s read Hosea 11: 1-5. `When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called My son, out of Egypt. As they called them, so they went from them, they sacrificed to Ba`al-im, and burned incense to carved idols. I also taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by My arms, but they did not know that it was I who healed them. I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love, and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I fed them. He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian (The German) shall be his king, because they refused to return.` Now we`ll combine that scripture with this one, Isaiah 10: 5-6. `O Assyrian, the rod of My anger, and the staff in their hand is My indignation. I will send him (The Assyrian) against a Godless nation, against the people of My wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.` The Lord God can still be merciful to our nation, and spare us total ruination but the people have to change, right now, but we must also be realistic and ask ourselves, what are the chances of that? And so for a final scripture we`ll read once again Deuteronomy 4: 27-31. `The Lord will scatter you amongst the nations and you will be left few in number amongst the heathen, where the Lord shall lead you. And there you shall serve gods, the work of men`s hands, wood and stone which neither see nor hear, nor eat nor smell. But if from there you shall seek the Lord your God, you shall find Him if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. When you are in distress and all these things have come upon you in the latter days, if you turn to the Lord your God and are obedient to His voice, (For the Lord your God is a merciful God) He will not forsake you, neither destroy you, nor forget the agreement with your fathers that He swear to them.` So, to sum up, if we as a nation want to stop the tide of these non-integrating immigrants, who may be compared to a `plague` which the Lord God has visited our nation of Britain with, but, just as say a plague of locusts is not wanted, a people who suffer that plague should not blame the locusts for that plague. because the plague was brought about by the people`s own sins and their abandonment of the one true God. If this nation where tomorrow, to repent of their evil ways then, and only then, will the Lord God persuade these immigrants to either integrate and become British or influence them to decide that this country isn`t after all the one for them and turn their hearts to go back to their homelands. One last scripture for any anti-Christ/anti-Christian who may be reading this and who thinks that their god is the god that will redeem them, we`ll read the words of Jesus Christ in His role as the God of the old testament, we`ll find them in Isaiah 45: 23. `As I have sworn by Myself, the word is gone out of My mouth in righteousness and shall not return, That to ME, every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.` Remember, the bottom line is this, it is NOT the non-intergrating immigrants who are to blame for being where they are, it is the people of this country who have foresaken their one true God and have treated His commandments with contempt and cast them away!
