

The Real Time Lord

As many of the people living in the U.K. already know, the British Broadcasting Corporation, better known worldwide as the BBC, (and to some of us in the U.K. as the `Babylonian Broadcasting Corporation`), have been showing for about 45 or more years now, a fantasy children`s programme entitled `Dr. Who`. Now, this character has, as the storyline informs the viewer, over the years, `regenerated` himself and thus has been able to survive for hundreds of decades and longer in whatever human form he happens to inherit after being `regenerated`. He seems to spend most of his waking hours (never seen him sleep) travelling through parallel chunks of time and space in his `Tardis`, a time and relative dimension transporter machine (or whatever) over which he, more often than not, seems to have very little control! It should come as no surprise to any of us that this `doctor` is in fact an `alien`, which seems these days, to be the accepted explanation for the possible, plausible existence for every lunatic, lying, fantasy that emanates from any man or woman writer`s fevered imagination. Align this `alien` theme along with the idiotic idea that time itself, can create things, then we come to the popularist train of thought adopted by many so-called `scientists` (when the actual truth is far from them), that mankind `evolved` and has subsequently been `discovered` by `aliens` of a superior intelligence to our own and that we have been continued to be `visited` by them ever since. Nuts! I`ve got some patently obvious `news` for these `scientific` dreamers, time, does not, cannot, create anything. In fact, it does just the opposite! Time makes to grow old and die, it erodes and wears away, it allows decomposition and rot to set in, and it brings ever closer the impending doom that the scriptures forewarn us that is going to befall this lawless and so easily and readily deceived, world. So, let`s get back to Dr. Who, this fabled `time lord`, a person who, like most other `super heroes`, has `saved the world`, a tedious number of times. In one recent episode he even had a confrontation with a thinly veiled version of Satan, himself, going down into the very `pit` to engage him in battle! And guess who not only won, but also escaped from the bottomless pit? Let us now read what the writer of this fictional garbage probably read, but having read it did not believe, and so used it and fantasised it, let`s read Revelation 20: 1-3. `And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the devil, Satan, and bound him a thousand years, and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more until the thousand years are fulfilled, and after that he must be released for a little while`. When will these clowns who masquerade as `original` writers realise that the bible is not a work of fiction that just sits there on their book shelves waiting to be `cannibalised` for ideas when `writer`s block` sets in? Don`t they realise that they are playing a very dangerous `game` indeed! Like most people on this earth, when they do realise the error of their ways, it will be way too late. What these lying storytellers at the BBC (or employed by them) have done is to make the personage of Dr. Who, more powerful (in the eyes of those watching it) than Almighty God, and for many an impressionable youngster who has no true biblical knowledge of Jesus Christ or of God the father, this Dr. Who, is just another one of a long line of Satanically inspired `God, substitutes`. And notice this, have any of the so-called `christian` churches of this country lodged any complaint with the BBC about the dangers of such subversive mind and/or spiritual corruption? Not to my knowledge. Has titled `prince` Charles, the so-called (in waiting) `Defender of the Faith`, (or `Faiths`, as he now wants it to be!) made any objections to the BBC about the constant blasphemies against, and the eroding away of the true knowledge of the Lord God? Not to my knowledge he hasn't. Perhaps if Faith was an ancient building or a stately home, he would have done something by now! So many dreamed-up and fabricated `superheroes` and not so super, all `saving the world`, time after time, after time. Whereas the one real Super Hero, has only had to do it once! All of these man-made `super heroes` are a smokescreen, devised by Satan to obfuscate and confuse succeeding generation after generation of TV and movie viewers as to the real truth about the reality of what is actually happening right now to themselves and to the rest of the people of this world. And when things really do get horrific for them, the sad truth is that they will not know or understand that we, the people of this world, really do have a Super Hero, a Time Lord, a Saviour, but better than this, we actually have a Super Hero, a Time Lord, a Saviour, who is God, Himself! Something that neither Dr. Who, nor any of the other fabricated `super heroes` and `saviours of the world` have yet been allowed to aspire to by their wayward writers. But I suspect that it is only a matter of time before Satan, motivates some `accessible` storyteller to invent such a character, and for the BBC or other programmers to eagerly promote it. Watch the media for all such future developments! We genuine Christians have had our one true God, made known to us for thousands of years now, but as I think we all know, He, has in fact `been around` since time (as we can perceive it) began, and who knows how long before that? It does not take a genius to work out that in order for something to exist, to be created, there is a need for a Creator, and subsequently the thing that is created cannot exist before its` Maker. Our God, created time so that we mere humans can have something tangible by which we can perceive and come to understand the temporary existence of all things. He, being immortal and `beyond time` has no personal use for it. At present, all material creation is temporary and it will one day cease to be, let`s have a read of Isaiah 51: 6. `Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath. For the heavens will vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wear out like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner. But My salvation shall be for ever, and My righteousness shall not fail.` And now for a scripture from the new testament, 2 Peter 3: 10-11. `But the day of the Lord, will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein will also be burned up. Knowing then, that all these things are to be destroyed, what manner of persons should we be in all holy conduct and godliness.` Time has been created as a measuring device for us, God, has given us `other measuring aids` as well, the seasons of the year, the movements of the planets, day and night etc. to make us aware of the passage of time. Time itself is the most temporary and fickle `thing` that exists, we cannot live in its` past and we cannot live in its` future and no sooner do we think about the `present` than it has immediately become the past. Imagine if you would, that all of these `measuring aids` that the Lord has provided for us, ceased to exist, and that there was also no noise, no perception of dark or of light, would time still exist? And if it did, what would be the point of it? Time does not exist in death, but for us, thankfully, the Lord God, in the shape and form of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, has conquered death, thereby ensuring a future `time` for us. Now that`s what a REAL Super Hero and `Time Lord`, can do! Almighty God, is so powerful that He, doesn`t need a `Tardis` or any other mechanical contrivance to get Himself across the eons of time and space or from one dimension to another, or from one end of `endless` space, to the other. Let`s read a scripture that very bluntly states once and for all just exactly what/who, He, is, Revelation 1: 8. `I Am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, says the Lord, Which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.` No, He, does not need a `Tardis` to get about, but nevertheless He, displays a certain panache, a certain style, for when He, did decide to go `travelling`, on the occasion that we are about to read of, He chose not a swanky `top of the range`, jaw-dropping to behold creation, no He, used, well let`s read Psalm 18: 7-10. `Then the earth shook and trembled, the foundations of the hills also moved, and were shaken, because He, was angry. There went up a smoke out of His nostrils, and fire out of His mouth devoured, coals were set alight by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down, darkness was under His feet. And He rode upon a cherub, and did fly upon the wings of the wind.` The Lord God, does not need a map, Sat. Nav. or any other navigational aids, He already knows the way, and why shouldn`t He? After all, He, `built` it! He, even knows every single star by name, all the billions of them, imagine that! How do I know? Because the scriptures tell me so, Psalm 147: 4. `He counts the number of the stars, He calls them all by their names.` and now Isaiah 40: 25-26. `To whom then will you compare Me, or who will I be equal to? says the Holy One. Raise your eyes to the heavens, and behold who has created these things that bring out their hosts by number. He calls them all by their names, by the greatness of His might, and because He is strong in power, not one fails.` So, how does the one true Almighty God, and `Time Lord`, compare to the imaginary `fairy tale` `super heroes` of mere man`s invention and fevered dreamings? We`ll go to the book of Job now, Job 9: 1-12. `Then Job answered (God) and said, I know it is so of a truth, but how should man be just with God? If he will contend with Him, he cannot answer (back to) Him, one time out of a thousand. He is wise in heart and mighty in strength, who has hardened himself against Him, and prospered? He removes the mountains and they know not, He overturns them in His anger. He shakes the earth out of its` place, and the pillars thereof tremble. He commands the sun and it does not rise, He seals up the stars. He alone spreads out the heavens and treads upon the waves of the sea. He makes Arcturus, Orion and Pleiades, and the constellations of the south. He does great things beyond our knowledge and performs wonders without number.` Let`s read of another demonstration of a true `Time Lord`s` incredible power, 2 Kings 20: 9-11. `And Isaiah said, this sign you shall have of the Lord, to prove that the Lord will do that which He has spoken of to you, do you want the shadow (on the sundial) to go forwards ten degrees, or go backward ten degrees? And Hezekiah answered, it is an easier thing for the shadow to go forwards ten degrees, so, let the shadow return backwards ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried to the Lord, and the Lord brought the shadow ten degrees backwards, by which it had already gone down on Ahaz`s sundial.` If we stop to think what it would take for that seemingly `simple` thing to happen, then we can appreciate what an incredible event took place here, an event which involved stopping the actual orbital movement of the whole earth, reversing it, and then allowing it to proceed forwards again, without any disruption to the earth`s wellbeing! There is yet another example of the sheer power of the Almighty, it`s to be found in Joshua 10: 12-14. `Then spoke Joshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and Joshua said in the sight of Israel, Sun stand still upon Gibeon, and you Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. And the sun stood still and the moon did not move, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this recorded in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven and delayed to start to go down for a whole day.` For more awe inspiring facts about our God, Creator, chapters 38, 39, 40 and 41, of Job, should be read. There is however one thing that Almighty God, will not do, He will not force anybody to believe in Him, or that which He has done, or that which He, is about to do and be seen to do. Moving further along in human history, we`ll go to a scripture from the new testament, Luke 23: 44-45. `And it was about the sixth hour (12 noon) and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. (3.p.m.) And the sun was darkened and the veil of the temple was torn in two.` Once again, the Lord God, demonstrates His, power over the planets, but if this in itself was not incredible enough, let`s read what else happened, Matthew 27: 52-53. `And the graves were opened, and many bodies of the saints which were dead, arose and came out of their graves after His resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many.` I wonder how many of us having read those scriptures `wish` that we could have witnessed just one or two of those stunning events? Well, maybe there is a chance for some of us to still `be around` when these events, which we are about to read from the book of Revelation, come to pass, but I for one do not want to be living as flesh and blood when this lot happens. Revelation 6: 12-17. `And I beheld, when He had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became as black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon turned red. And the stars of the heavens, fell to the earth, even as a fig tree casts its` unripe figs, as when shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the rich men, and the great men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every slave, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains. And said to the rocks and the mountains, fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him that sits on the throne, and from the anger of the Lamb. For the great day of His wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand?` Of course there are sceptics and unbelievers and the faithless and the downright `pig ignorant`, who will decry and deny that any of these future prophesised events will ever come to pass. But `worse` than these are they who are directly being controlled and led, knowingly and willingly, by Satan and his demon`s malevolent influences. These are they who know only too well that these prophesised events will take place, but they try their lying and deceiving worst to convince those who have the political sway and the `loudest voice` in this world, that the scriptures are nothing more than a collection of old, Jewish, fables. Oh yes, Satan, and his demons know who the true one great God, and `Time Lord`, is, and also what is to be their fate at His, hands, and they want as many unbelieving, sinning, lawless humans to suffer the same fate! They are truly terrified of God the Father, and of God the Son. Let`s read, Matthew 8: 28-29. `And when He (Jesus) was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, they were exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass by that way. And behold, they (that is the demons) cried out saying, what have we to do with You, Jesus, You, Son of God? have You come here to torment us before our time?` We can understand from the reading of this scripture that there is yet an appointed time for the end, the destruction of the demons and their leader, Satan, and they are dreading it! James 2: 19. `You believe that there is one God, you do well, (a bit of sarcasm there I think) the demons also believe, and they (at the very thought) shudder.` But without belief, without the knowledge of Almighty God, there is no fear of Him, or of His unimaginable power. We find that there are people who, in their hearts must know better, but they come across as sceptics and they wilfully deny His, very existence, and they suppose that humankind, given the right conditions, and the `magic` ingredient of time, will eventually `evolve` into some sort of all powerful, bodiless, meaningful `somethingness`. Well, it stands to reason, we can`t all be all powerful, so that`s something for them to look forward to! What else then has the Almighty God, performed that we daily take for granted and that we treat as mere commonplace? Well, how about creating something from absolutely nothing? It`s hard to imagine what absolutely nothing is like, but from it, (not counting the absolutely everything that is the make-up of our great, God) the Lord God, created everything that we can perceive and that which we have yet to perceive. As for the `things` that humankind has `created`, well, really, we just play about in the

`sandpit` that is filled with ingredients that have been created and supplied for us by our loving God, our heavenly Father. He, has already done everything that humankind has ever technically done or will ever do. He, has been there, He, has the tee-shirt` and He, long ago `sent the postcard`. He, has stocked our gigantic `sandpit` with everything that we could possibly need for now. He, has supplied us with every chemical, gas, mineral, liquid, food, plant, fossil fuel, etc., and He, has allowed us to `play` around with these things of His. And so, over the passing millenia, humankind has been making at certain times, `leaps and bounds` in coming to understand the possibilities of these God-given, ingredients, especially over the last fifty years or so in which our knowledge has increased over and above that which was ever thought possible to achieve even as late ago as the second world war. But are we really so clever? Do the majority of humankind really think that they have `escaped` from the Lord God, and His, commandments and of the consequences of breaking or ignoring those commandments? Is humankind now `free` to continue to `run riot` in pursuing its` self willed and arrogant and ultimately self destructive ways? No, and it never was, and nor will it ever be. Everything that ever was or that ever will be, has and is being carried out under the Lord God`s, time control. This next scripture will come as a worrying shock to those who think that they can escape from the Lord, we`ll read from Amos 9: 2-3. `Though they dig into hell, from there My hand shall take them, though they climb up to heaven, from there will I bring them down, and though they hide themselves in the top of (Mount) Carmel, I will search and take them out from there, and though they be hid from My sight at the bottom of the sea, from there will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them.` Thousands of years have passed since Adam and Eve, were first created, and not much, if any, real `technology` came to exist for the use of humankind, and now, suddenly, within the last forty years, humankind has been allowed to transform their vague, material dreams, into clear, material reality. Of course the Almighty God, the real `Time Lord`, knew that this would happen and when, it is all part of His, great plan for humankind, and all successful plans have one thing in common, a timetable of events. Let`s have a read of a verse from the book of Daniel, at a point where Daniel, has just been informed of what is to happen to the world and its` human inhabitants thousands of years into the future, Daniel 12: 4. `But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end, many shall run to and fro, (travel the world) and knowledge shall be increased.` Humankind has been allowed to experiment with its` own flesh and blood in a `medical` context. We can keep it `alive` and functioning in a condition known as a `persistent vegetative state`, but one thing yet alludes us, the actual knowledge of the power of being able to give life. And we will never acquire that knowledge, and why not? Well, let`s turn once again to the scriptures for the answer, and if the authorities and the `powers that be` would only believe that which is written within the scriptures, then billions and billions of taxpayers hard earned money would cease to be wasted year upon year, on useless and ultimately doomed to failure, projects, especially the one that obsesses them the most, `the `mystery` of life`. Genesis 3: 22-24. `And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of Us, to know good and evil, and now, in case he puts forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat and live forever. Therefore the Lord God, sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken,. So God, drove out the man, and He placed at the east of the garden of Eden, Cherubims, and a flaming sword, which turned every way to keep the man from finding the tree of life.` And so, there it is, the knowledge of life, the living spirit that is within all humankind, the one thing that is not part of the `sandpit` of ingredients that we have been given and allowed to `play` with and master, and the one thing that we, flesh and blood humankind, never will be allowed to master. Humankind, for the most part, fails to recognise that we have come to know and master only that which we have been allowed to by the Lord God, Daniel 2: 20-22. `Daniel answered and said, blessed be the name of God for ever and ever, for wisdom and might, are His. He changes the times and the seasons, He removes kings, and sets up kings, He gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that have understanding. He reveals the deep and secret things, He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him.` I wonder, how many of the `super hero` storywriters, even in the feverish heat of their overworked imaginings, would ever dream up a working storyline for one of their `super heroes` like the one that we are about to read of ? (providing of course that they never `cannibalise` any of the scriptures!) Ezekiel 37: 1-12. `The hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of a valley which was full of bones, and caused me to pass by them round about, and behold, there were very many in the open valley, and they were very dry. And He said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, You know. Again He spoke to me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say to them, O you dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God to these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live, and you shall know that I Am, is the Lord. So I prophesied as I was commanded, and as I prophesied there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I looked, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them. Then He said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus says the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breath upon these slain, so that they might live. So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then He said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel, behold they say, Our bones are dried and our hope is lost, we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophecy and say to them, Thus says the Lord God, Behold, O My people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.` Many `legends` and stories from `the distant past` have their origins deeply rooted in the scriptures, and the sad and puzzling thing is, that the people who believe these stories, more often than not, bad mouth and disbelieve the very scriptures that gave rise to them! For a quick example, I think that almost everybody reading this will have heard of the legend of king Arthur and Camelot (a place where people `came a lot`) and the knights of the round table, but I wonder, how many have paused to stop and think just who this king Arthur and his knights might actually be based upon? Well, without going into any detail, let`s just consider this, there are twelve knights of the round table, king Arthur is described as `the once and future king`, who is prophesied to rise, and come again when he is most needed, is any of this starting to sound familiar? Jesus, and his twelve disciples, Jesus Christ, our once and future King. Even the legend of `Robin Hood`, is based on the outlawing of David, by king Saul, when David was forced to hide out at En Gedi, and he and his small band of followers made raids upon various enemy encampments and divided the loot, in order to survive. So, for all of the ingenious inventions and technology that humankind now possesses and enjoys, in our Lord God`s, eyes, it is no more than children playing with their toys, and make no mistake, we know that children can and do get hurt, sometimes very seriously, when they play! Which is why, throughout the history of the human race, God, our heavenly Father, and His Son, Jesus Christ, our Creator, have always been keeping a paternal eye on us. Isaiah 51: 5. `My righteousness is near, My salvation is gone forth, and My arms shall judge the people, the islands shall wait upon Me, and on My arm shall they trust.` There is of course another side to the `super hero` `coin`, and that is the `super anti-hero`. All `good` storylines have to have one. You must know the sort of character I'm alluding to, the super intelligent but gone evil person or `thing`. After all, what would be the point of a `super hero` in a story without there being a `super anti-hero` or villain, for him to fight? Well, reality outdoes all of the storywriter`s efforts to create a `super anti hero`, because as we know, the supreme, evil `super anti-hero`, the anti-Christ, actually exists in the shape and form of the arch demon, Satan. Importantly though, the Lord God, does not need Satan, in order for Himself, to be recognised as the true Master of the universe, time, and everything else! And just as well, because Satan is to be utterly destroyed by the Lord, and we shall read of this in Ezekiel 28: 14-19. `You are the anointed cherub that covers, and I have set you so, you were upon the holy mountain of God, you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. You were perfect in your ways, since the day that you were created, until iniquity was found to be present in you. By the multitude of your merchandise, they have filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned; therefore I will cast you as profane out of the mountain of God, and I will destroy you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty, you have corrupted you wisdom by reason of your brightness; I will cast you to the ground, I will lay you before kings, so that they may see you. You have defiled your sanctuaries by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your dealings, therefore I will bring forth a fire from the midst of you, it shall devour you, and I will bring you to ashes upon the earth, in the sight of all that are watching you. All they that know you among the people shall be astonished at you; your death shall be a warning, never shall you be any more.` Well, you can't get it stated more clearly than that! And so, with the death of Satan, will come also the death of all lies and of all `story telling` and so-called `super heroes`. But a word of caution, before the destruction of Satan, at the hands of our Lord God, the whole world is to be held in the sway of one of Satan`s biggest lies. And it is this, the authorities that be, at the very time of the second coming of Jesus Christ, will have convinced the majority of the world`s people that they are under attack from `aliens` from outer space, and the already installed `beast power` will lead his, deceived or otherwise, human armies into battle against Jesus Christ, and His, Saints, and His, armies of heavenly angels. Yes, such is the current vacuous spiritual mind- set of the people and the governments of this world, that they will have allowed themselves to be deceived to such a degree, that they will find themselves trying to win a war, fighting against the most powerful `Being` that is, very, God, Himself ! Let`s look at Revelation 19: 19-21. `And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make war against Him that sat on the horse, and against His army. And the beast was taken, and with him, the false prophet that worked miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both, were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of Him that sat upon the horse, and from which the sword proceeded out of his mouth, and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.` And so now what? What happens when the truth of the whole matter is finally realised by a deceived world? Well, after the final judgement and when all who are to be punished, have been punished, our one true Super Hero and Time Lord, the Lord God Almighty, promises this; Isaiah 25: 8-9. `He will swallow up death in victory, and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces, and the rebuke of His people shall He take away from off all the earth, for the Lord has spoken it. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God, we have waited for Him, and He will save us, this is the Lord, we have waited for Him, we will be glad, and rejoice in His salvation.` To sum up, there is and there will continue to be, `realistic and plausible` stories of `super hero` after `super hero`, all `saving the world`, that will be churned out by (for the most part, unknowingly, Satanically motivated), writers and media controllers. And they will eventually be seen via TV, the world wide web, movie, or the written word. And all of this pap will be eagerly digested by an ever increasingly gullible, God, ignorant, public. Little do they know that this is all part of Satan`s `softening up` process, designed to numb and accustom the majority of the world`s peoples to `fantastic events and miraculous happenings`. It is also to allow them to eventually come to believe that the armies and the war machines of men and the imagined `super heroes` of this world are capable of fighting off any threat from `outer space`, so that when Jesus Christ, does return to this earth, in His full and awe inspiring, terrible glory, complete with His, army of saints and angels, the governments and the peoples of this world will think that they are being invaded by `aliens`, and they will gather together to do battle against God! And this battle is recorded in the scriptures, it has been given a name, it is . . . ARMAGEDDON. Our Almighty God, our Time Lord, has already seen the outcome of this battle, and the people of this world should bear in mind one simple fact, He, is not a loser!
