

Which God is Being Worshipped?

Quote:

`You can worship a false god, but you can also worship the true God, falsely.`

Christians, Protestants, Catholics, Methodists, etc., Jews, Muslims, Celts, Jehova Witnesses, Mormons, what can they all possibly have in common? The answer? Well they all profess to worship the `one true god` by whatever name that they have chosen to call him, or `it`, as the case may be. It is not difficult therefore to come to the conclusion that because of their many differences concerning the way that they worship, that they cannot possibly (no matter what they may think) all be worshipping the `one true god`, that is to say the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Let`s not forget either, that Jesus Christ is the God mentioned in, and of, the old testament ! Let`s read the words of Jesus Christ in John 14: 9-10. `Jesus said to him, Have I been so long a time with you and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He that has seen Me, has seen the Father, so why do you then say, Show us the Father? Don`t you believe that I am in the Father and that the Father is in Me? The words that I speak to you I speak not of Myself, but the Father that dwells in Me, He does the works. And in the book of Isaiah, we can read this once yearly read but then often forgotten piece of scripture, Isaiah 9: 6. `For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince Of Peace.` In this article I will be putting all the world`s other faiths and religions to one side and I will be concentrating on the so-called `Christain` faiths and religions. So what then will I be trying to show? Well, it is simply this, unless the one true God is worshipped in accordance to His will, in the way that He has instructed us to worship Him, (which is clearly laid out in both the old and the new testaments) then any other form of worship (usually ordained by mankind) is in vain, and totally useless, a waste of time, effort and expectation. But worse than this, it has persuaded millions who may well have taken up the banner of true Christianity, but have been turned away by the antics of so many perverted clergy, to look elsewhere, and to those who have accepted this false `Christian` church and its` false worship it has led them to enter into the dark realm of the great, worldwide Babylonian mystery religion, which is fronted by the great false church of Satan, a church which promotes the worship of idols and of saints and of `holy` relics and of the keeping of false `christian` festivals such as `christmas`, `easter`, and `hallowe`n`. Let`s have a read of Matthew 15: 8-9. `These people draw near to Me with their mouths, and honour Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me. For in vain do they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.` These false worshippers will ultimately have to bear the guilt of the evil that their vile practices have unleashed upon this earth. These people, who just love to call themselves`christians`, want to wear that title with the minimum of personal effort and with the minimum of any feeling of guilt, sin, or responsibility towards others, because they dump all of this upon the shoulders of their self- ordained, university qualified, worthless, priests and ministers who themselves have every one of their own sins to answer to God for, and their sins are mighty and many! Why? because they have and they continue to, lead millions of people astray, and very few, (if indeed any, because they are not stupid) have done this in ignorance, they have done it all with a high hand, feigning humility, they have done it with such arrogance, professing and giving the impression that they alone are worthy to have `direct` contact with the one true God, and that anything that they perform and do, albeit with total disregard to the Lord God`s will and His laws, is acceptable in His sight. These false `priests of God`, have devised and/or practice a religion seemingly based on biblical principals and the laws of God. They have devised to mix truth with lies to such an intricate extent that their all too willing congregations are unable to distinguish which is which, and the great majority of the rest of the `christian` world just couldn't care less anyway! People who listen to and take heed of these clergy are being fed an unholy diet of deceit and mis-information, evil schemes and doctrines of evil men are being portrayed as the commandments of God, and here is the real danger for these deceived people, let`s read Jonah 2: 8. `They that observe lying vanities, foresake their own mercy`. These `christians` (if they can be bothered to make the effort) falsely worship, or more accurately try to worship, the Lord God on their `sabbath` day, which they call `sunday`, and they keep their `feast days` and their self-ordained `saint`s` days, they have their `easter` day, and their `christmas` day and time, and let`s not forget their openly blatantly Satanic, `halloween`. They have done away with the God-given calander and they follow their own which is devised by a mere man who was known as `pope` Gregory! They worship `god` by speaking their own scripted words or have their clergy do it for them. They endlessly chant their invented vain repetitions and perform their rituals and ceremonies in their vastly expensive to construct and to maintain buildings which they call `churches`. Very little of what these `churches` and false religions perform is in fact Christian, and any of it that is, is defiled and debased by the context in which it is used! Many blasphemous priests and ministers have twisted and are twisting and perverting the holy word of God to suit their own evil ends and they are using Satanically inspired dogma and ceremony to `delight` and enchant their bemused and indoctrinated, spiritually ignorant congregations. Notwithstanding this, the congregations of these false religions are not considered by God to be totally innocent of the things that they take part of, for they have either totally cast aside the commandments and the words of the Almighty God having read them, or they stand accused of not having read them at all, and because of their sheep-like clergy following they are guilty of, amongst a host of other things, idolatry. Some have read the Lord`s commandments and know of His requirements as regards their behaviour, but like their lawless clergy, they have `cherry picked` from amongst these words, then they have taken them out of their proper context and then perverted them so that they fit their ideal of that which they are comfortable with, and then they proceed to worship their `god` following their fabricated, man-made ways. If only these people would snap out of their denial and allow themselves to get a glimmer of the truth about that which they have done and are continuing to do, then perhaps they would come to realize just exactly which `god` they are worshipping, that is, truly worshipping, then they would shrink back in horror and terror. I mean, do these people really want to be worshipping Satan and his demons? And so, having stated all this, it is time now to back it all up with some scripture from the bible, and in its` proper context! Let`s begin with Jeremiah 5: 31. `The prophets prophesy falsely and the priests uphold rule by their ways, and My people love to have it this way, and what will be done in the end thereof ?` and now Revelation 9: 20-21. `And the rest of the men that were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, insomuch that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk. Neither did they repent of their murders nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.` Now let`s couple that scripture from the very last book of the new testament, with two from the old testament, Isaiah 29: 13-15. `Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near to Me with their mouths, and with their lips do honour Me, they have removed their heart far from Me, and their reverence of Me is taught by the rules of men. Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe to them that seek deep to hide their plans from the Lord and whose works are in the dark, and they say, Who sees us? and who knows of us?` And now Jeremiah 12: 1-2. `Righteous are You, O Lord, when I plead with You; yet let me talk with You about Your judgments: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? why are those who deal treacherously happy? You have planted them, yes they have taken root, they grow, yes they bring forth fruit. You are near in their mouths but far from their hearts.` Now let`s go back to the new testament and read the words of Jesus Christ, Mark 7: 7-9. `However, in vain (futility) do they worship Me, teaching for the correct ways, the doctrines of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things that you do. And He said to them, Full well you reject the commandment of God, so that you can keep your own traditions.` And now for more words of Jesus in Matthew 23: 13-15. `But woe to you scribes and Pharisees, (the clergy of the time) you hypocrites! for you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for you neither go in yourselves, and neither do you allow those who are trying to enter to go in. Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widow`s houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore you shall receive the greater damnation. Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel sea and land to convert one follower, and when he is converted, you make him twice the child of hell than yourselves.` And now another two scriptures from the old testament, Jeremiah 7: 8-11. `Behold, you trust in lying words that cannot profit. will you steal, murder and commit adultery, and swear falsely and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods who you do not know, and then come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My name, and say, We are delivered to commit all of these abominations? Is this house which is called by My name become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, says the Lord.` and now Jeremiah 1: 16. `And I will utter My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, who have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshipped the work of their own hands.`

Many of these false churches and their false religions don`t even offer up proper prayers during their assemblies, (not that they would be heard by the Lord if they did!) they perform instead a load of old `mumbo jumbo` of repetitive mumblings that can be repeated for hundreds and hundreds of times, and of making this or that sign in this or that particular way thinking that this `magical` and `mystical` performance is pleasing to the Lord. Jesus has something to say about meaningless repetitiveness in Matthew 6: 7. `When you pray, do not use meaningless repetition, as the heathen do, for they think that they will be heard because of their much speaking.` Now, repetition does not mean that a person should not (every hour of every day if they want to) continually go to the Lord in prayer and ask Him for the same (good) thing to be granted them. For example, the same prayers may often be asked for healing, for forgiveness, for strength, for overcoming temptation etc., and we all know that some of these things can take time to be granted, particularly if the Lord has a reason why a person needs to endure such things, and such things are often endured until the end of a person`s life. But, that being the case, praying to the Lord daily for relief of suffering, if not granted in this life time, has at the very least kept the sufferer in daily contact, (through prayer) with the Lord. Now just how worthwhile and priceless is that? Let`s have a read of Romans 1: 21-27. `Because that, when they knew (of) God, they honoured Him not as God, neither were they thankful; but became conceited in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves. Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed forever, Amen. For this reason God gave them up to degrading passions: for even their women did change their natural use into that which is against nature. And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one for another; men with men, working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that penalty which was fitting for their sin.` Well I wonder, have the ministers and the priests of the so-called `christian` churches of this world ever, and I mean ever, read this piece of scripture? And if they have, then did they understand it? Of course they understood it, what is there not to understand? They are not stupid, far from it! So if they are not stupid, the question must be asked, What are they? What are these priests and ministers who arrogantly and blatantly contravene and deny the holy word of God and treat it with evil contempt and who practice the forbidden things of the Lord God`s commandments? The answer? We can rightly say that if these vile clergy, by the practices that they observe, openly deny the very word of God, and by their actions pour scorn on His guidelines and directives, then these clergy are not at all, in any way, representative of the one true, loving, all powerful, Almighty God. Let`s read the words of Jesus Christ in Matthew 7: 13-20. `Enter you in by way of the narrow gate, because wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in through the wide gate. Narrow is the gate and narrow is the way which leads to life, and there are few that find it. Beware of false prophets (clergy) that come to you in sheep`s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorn bushes or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree brings forth good fruit, but a bad tree brings forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, just as a bad tree cannot bring forth good fruit. Every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. Wherefore, by their fruits you shall know them.` What or who then is the `god` that these false prophets, these clergy, serve and worship? If these ministers and priests actively practice and preach that which is scripturally opposed to what the Lord God, through His holy word, demands of us, then at the very least, these clergy have made themselves antichrists, and this being the case then we should now be able to discern from where their blasphemous behaviour has and is, derived. They knowingly lead their congregations astray to follow and worship a false `christian` `god`, and it is time to reveal who that `god` is. This will be easy for any true Christian to accept, but for millions of deceived `christians` (if they will accept it!) it will come as a terrible shock and a horror beyond their worst nightmare, but one day in their life they are going to have to face up to the fact. It will be hard for them because they have been weaned on smooth lying words of false comfort and security, and fed daily on a diet of `do as you want, all you need for salvation is to simply believe`. Well, here`s a scripture for them, James 2: 19. `You believe that there is one God; you do well: the demons also believe this, and they tremble (because of this knowledge)` Yes, these deceived `christians` have been constantly fed a diet of smooth lying words, but this is nothing new, let`s read Isaiah 30: 9-11. `This is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not listen to the word of the Lord. Who say to the seers, See not, and to the prophets, Prophecy not to us right things, speak to us smooth things, prophecy lies to us.` And what should we suppose that the consequences of this attitude of the people will be? Let`s read on in verses 12-14. `Wherefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because you despise this word, and trust in extortion and perverseness, and rely thereon, therefore this sin will be as a breach (a bulge) ready to fall, swelling out in a near wall, the breaking of which comes suddenly, in an instant.` Smooth words and lies, sin as much as you want just as long as you remember to go to the priest in the `confessional box`, inside the `church`, confess your sins to the priest, ask the priest to intercede between yourself and the Lord God, ask the priest for forgiveness of your sins, pay the priest, pay the church, pay enough and buy for yourself an `assured` and a reserved place in heaven. What drivel! What Satanic delusion! The priest cannot even forgive himself of his own sins, let alone forgive another person their sins, no matter how much money they throw at him or the `church`. Let`s now read the words of the Lord God about man`s inability to save himself never mind his ability to save another, here is what the Lord said to Job, Job 40: 8-14. `Will you also disannul My judgment? Will you condemn Me, so that you may be righteous? Have you an arm like God? Or can you thunder with a voice like Him? Adorn yourself right now with excellency and majesty, and array yourself with glory and beauty. Cast abroad the rage of your wrath, and look upon everyone who is proud and bring him low. Yes, look upon everyone that is proud and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. Hide them in the dust together and bind their faces in secret. (If you can do these things) Then I will confess that your own right hand can save you.` If we have a look at the book of Proverbs, we can read this, Proverbs 6: 16 and 19. `These six things does the Lord detest: yes, seven are an abomination to Him. A false witness that speaks lies, and he that sows discord among bretheren.` The Lord God, detests a priest or a minister that speaks lies to his congregation, and we should all recognise that in order for a person to tell deliberate lies, that person must firstly know the truth of a matter. Even so, if a person spreads abroad a lie about something or somebody without first bothering to ascertain the validity of its` truth and of its` origins, then that person can rightly, at the very least, be called a malicious gossiper, one who delights in spreading evil, shaming `information` about a person or a subject. Such a gossiper might not be the original source of the lie, but by broadcasting that lie at every opportunity, they have made themselves a willing `disciple` of that lie, and they are therefore guilty of that lie just as much as if they had originated it! Let`s remind ourselves who is `the father of the lie`, and this means all lies. In this next piece of scripture we have Jesus Christ talking to the priests of His time, John 8: 44-45. `You are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks that which is of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of the lie. So, when I tell you the truth, you do not believe Me.` Priests and ministers ever since (and before) the times of Jesus Christ upon this earth, have been deceiving the people by their deliberate, continuing distortion and lies about the requirements of our great God and His true church, Jeremiah 14: 14. `Then the Lord said to me, The prophets prophesise lies in My Name; I did not send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke to them; they prophesise to you a false vision and insight and a thing of nothing, the deceit of their own heart.` This scripture, as we can understand is about false prophets, but also by extension false priests and ministers, indeed anyone who speaks falsely and without the authority of God and /or His word when addressing biblical matters and the issue of correct holy days and their observances. The peoples of this world, although deceived as many of them are, have been given ample and timely warning about their false priests, prophets, ministers and teachers and their respective evil and misleading doctrines. Everything about them and what they do and preach, all but screams out loud `blasphemy!` There is very little or absolutely nothing scripturally correct or Christian or Godly respectful in any of their churches, or about any of their idols, or their statues of this or that `saint`, or in the excessively ornate pagan-orientated regalia that they wear or in the pagan altars that they attend to so diligently or in the statues purporting to represent the `crucified Christ` or the `virgin Mary`, `the queen of heaven`. There is nothing Christian in the ceremonies or in the festivals that they have invented for themselves such as `christmas`, `easter` and `hallowe`n`, the latter being out and out blatantly Satanic! These things are all stark evidence of the lie and the falseness of their supposed Christian calling. Here is some more scripture about just what exactly our God and Creator, Jesus Christ had to say about the clergy of His day, and as we shall discover nothing has changed since then except that now it has become a lot worse and more prevalent. Matthew 23: 4-10. `For they bind heavy burdens, grievous to be borne, and then they lay them on men`s shoulders: but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all the works that they do, they do them to be seen by men, they make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. (to make themselves appear more important) They love the uppermost (the best) rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues and greetings in the market places, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi. (Teacher, Teacher) But don`t allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, for only One is your Master, even Christ, and you are all bretheren. And do not call any man upon this earth, father; for One is your Father Who is in heaven. Neither let yourselves be called (known as) leaders, for only One is your Master, even Jesus Christ. Even the altars in the `churches` that these clergy worship at are evil in the sight of God, because they have not been simply constructed as per the Lord`s very specific instructions, instead they have been elaborately carved, decorated, painted and lavishly embellished with gold and other such `precious` materials and adorned and surrounded with blasphemous, idolatrous statues and images. Let`s read Exodus 20: 23-26. `You shall not make Me gods of silver, neither shall you make for yourselves gods of gold. An altar of earth you shall make to Me, and shall sacrifice thereon your burnt offerings, and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen: in all places where I put My name I will come to you and I will bless you. And if you will make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of cut stone; because if you put a tool upon it then you will have polluted it. Neither shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness be not discovered thereon.` We can understand by the reading of those last verses of scripture that the altar that is acceptable to the Lord, is a very modest and unassuming structure and is nothing like the monstrous, overworked, gilded and stepped abominations that are found in so-called `christian` churches the world over, replete with idolotrous and Satanic images of this and that. You name it, if these evil priests and minisers like it and want it on their altars, then they will have it there. Isn`t it obvious then, that these `christian` churches are not the Lord God Almighty`s churches? They belong to the priesthood and the clergy and the god that they have chosen to serve and worship! What other evil things can we find that these `christian` churches have in common? We`ll have a read of 3. John: 9-10. `I wrote to the church, (that is the people of the church) but Diotrephes, who loves to have pre-eminence over them, will not receive us. Therefore when I come, I will remember his deeds which he has done, speaking against us with malicious words, but not only that, neither did he receive the bretheren but forbade those that would and then cast them out of the church.` The `christian` churches of this world are full of clergy who love to appear superior and manipulate and control others whilst giving the impression that all this authority and `power` that they have lavishly bestowed upon themselves, is in fact ordained by the Lord God. There are many clergy like Diotrephes mentioned in that last scripture, but what millions of professing `christians` fail to recognise is that a man, even for all of his perceived `high office` within a `church`, even for all of his splendid regalia and his authoritative, sounding voice resonating within the walls of a huge building, is still just a man! Let`s have a read of 2 Corinthians 11: 13-15. `For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, making themselves appear as the apostles of Christ. But this is no marvellous thing, because Satan himself appears as an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also appear as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. And it's not only the clergy who try to appear saintly, they have their `toady` hangers on, lay members who seek to be recognised as being `closer to `god` than the rest` by being seen to associate with their priests and ministers. 2 Timothy 3: 1-7. `This also know, that in the latter days, (our present day) perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy. Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, without self control, fierce, despisers of those that are good. Traitors, conceited, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; from such turn away. For of this sort are they that worm their way into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with various lusts. Ever learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.` I wonder how many of these blasphemous clergy actually realize the enormity of that which they profess to do in the name of Almighty God? Because if they have willingly rejected the ways and the commandments of the Lord God, and in their place substituted the demonic rituals of the arch murderer and liar, Satan, thinking that the Lord God and Satan are merely opposites to each other and therefore have equal power, then boy, are they in for a shock! Satan, or Lucifer as he was previously known, is to be utterly destroyed by the Lord, (for a fuller account of Satan`s destruction read the article `Can Satan Be Destroyed?`) and we can read about some of that judgment and destruction now if we look at Isaiah 14: 11-15. `Your pomp is brought down to the grave, along with the sound of your lutes: the worm is spread under you and the worms cover you. How you are fallen from heaven O Lucifer, son of the morning! you are cut down to the ground you who weakened the nations. For you have said in your heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit and be in control of the congregation, in the sides of the north. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the most high. But you shall be brought down to the grave, to the sides of the pit.` Even if they know and acknowledge that the Lord God is the supreme being and has all power, but have decided to take advantage of His `good nature` and deliberately gone astray lusting after the adoration and the praise of men whilst at the same time opting for the instant reward of the `sweet and easy life`, thinking that anyway, they will be forgiven for every sin that they commit, then here is a scripture that they should all read and take very seriously indeed! Hebrews 6: 4-8. `For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy spirit, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, if they shall fall away, to revive them again to repentance; seeing that they crucify to themselves the Son of God anew, and put Him to an open shame. For the earth that drinks in the rain that often falls upon it and then brings forth plants of use to them who tend it, receives blessings from God. But that which bears thorns and briers, is rejected, and is near to cursing; whose end is to be burned.` If any of these `christian` clergy have read these words and are not worried by them then it can safely be assumed that none of them were ever enlightened by the true word of God in the first place! Which in turn means that if they do not and have never, possessed God`s holy spirit, then they are charlatons and liars and serve the `father of the lie`, and as we have read earlier, we know who that is! I think that most of us have heard of the expression, `get your act together`, well, these `christian` priests and ministers certainly have, they are masters of their `craft`. Most have been to university or the clerical equivalent, and have acquired for themselves `doctorates` or similar, in how to `minister` to and lead on their congregations. Having studied their `craft` for years they can't wait to get out amongst the people and put all the man-made, money making doggeral that they've learned, into practice. They exercise and put to profitable effect all that they have learned of how to perform their rituals and dazzling displays of pomp and ceremony, and introduce as God-given and commanded, their phoney `holy` days and festivals, all designed one way or another to hook and capture, entertain and delight an unsuspecting and scripturally ignorant public. All of this lying show is of course liberally sprinkled with half truths and bits and pieces of deliberately mis-quoted biblical whole truths which are needed to give the entire lying charade a ring of Godly and righteous sounding authenticity. People are attracted like moths to a flame when it comes to a `free` spectacle of light, flashy showmanship, catchy emotional songs, ceremony and colour, and doubly so when all of this is coupled with the `promise` of eternal life, especially when told that in order to achieve it, all that a person has to do is `just believe`. I wonder, have any of their congregations ever stopped and thought to ask themselves the question, `too good (and easy) to be true? Let`s now read from 1. Timothy 4: 1-2. `Now the spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times (our present time) some shall depart from the faith and give heed to seducing spirits and to the teachings of demons. Speaking lies in hypocrisy: having their conscience seared with a hot iron.` To be a true Christian was never meant to be an easy, comfortable ride, and it still isn`t meant to be and do not believe anybody who tries to tell you anything different, but neither should you be put off by the challenge, because the rewards of overcoming this Satanically inspired and driven Babylonian system that temporarily rules this world, are beyond human imagination, and they are eternal! In the old testament, (most of which is just as relevant to us today as it was when it was first written) we can find examples even in those days, of men of authority trying to impose their will over other men contrary to the will of the Lord God. Not much if anything, has changed since then in that respect! Daniel 3: 14-18. `Nebuchadnezzar, spoke and said to them, Is it true O Shadrach, Meshac, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have erected? Now if you be ready, when you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery and dulcimer and all kinds of music, you shall fall down and worship the image that I have made, and all will be well for you, but if you do not worship, you will in the same hour, be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace; and who is the God that will deliver you from out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshac and Abednego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to answer you concerning this matter. If it is to be, our God whom we serve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from out of your hand O king. But if not, let it be known to you O king, that we will not serve your gods nor worship the golden image which you have erected.` The true God, did not disappoint His true servants, even though, to show his power, He allowed them to be thrown into the fiery furnace, as we can read of in Daniel 3: 27-28. `And the princes, governors and captains and the king`s counsellors being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, not even a hair on their head was singed, neither were their coats damaged and not even the smell of the fire was upon them. Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshac and Abednego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and who violated the king`s command, and who yielded their bodies, rather than serve or worship any god, except for their own God.` It`s not so much kings or presidents etc., that lead the people spiritually astray these days but the clergy of the great false `christian` religions of this world by twisting the scriptures and the very words of God in order to further their own evil ends. They are no longer, as some of them were in the past, poor down and outs seeking a roof over their heads and food in their bellies willing to do anything in order to ease their discomfort. No, these days the great majority, if not all of the `christian` clergy, are well educated and shrewd, they have a well paid job to do, a living to make which involves achieving authority and personal respect rather than a respect for the position that they supposedly represent. Most have a full awareness of that which they do and of the ends that they hope to achieve by doing those things. In a `nutshell`, they have worldly ambition to succeed in life, the kind of `life` that Jesus Christ Himself, explicitly warns us to have nothing to do with. Let`s read Matthew 10: 39. `He that finds his life shall lose it, and he that loses his life for My sake, shall find it.` We can quite rightly determine that by the things that these clergy do, that they do not do them by the given authority of the one, true, almighty, living God, but by the authority of another `god`, the ruler (for the time being) of this present world, and we can know who exactly this is if we read the words of Jesus Christ in John 14: 30. `Hereafter I will not talk much with you, for the prince (the ruler, Satan) of this world comes, and has nothing (in common) with Me.` And so it is, by the devices that they have created for their works, that these clergy lead the scripturally ignorant majority of people astray, and unfortunately for them, their possible fate has already been described in Isaiah 65: 2-5. and verse 12. `I have spread out My hands all day to a rebellious people, which walks in a way that is not good, after their own imaginings. A people that provoked Me to anger continually, to My face, who sacrifice at their pagan shrines and burn incense upon altars of brick. Who stay amongst the graves and live in the monuments, who eat pigs flesh, and a mixture of abominable things is in their cooking pots. Who say, Stand by Yourself, do not come near to me, for I am holier than You. These are as smoke in My nose from a fire that burns all of the day. Therefore shall I number you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called, you did not answer, when I spoke you would not hear, but instead did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I did not take any delight.` The hardest thing to do these days is to get across to and convince an ever increasingly sceptical world that Satan really does exist, and of just how much a perillous threat he is to their very souls! The public at large tend to have this image in their minds of Satan as being some sort of almost comical, harmless, scarlet coloured fork-tailed catsuit-clad figure, replete with horns and brandishing some sort of pitch fork or trident. But most people reading this article will know that this image of Satan is probably one that he himself delights in people having of him. The truth of the matter is that Satan is the most powerful and demonic, pitiless, loveless, cruel, murderous and deceiving being in creation, and he poses a very real threat and present danger to those who follow him or deny his existence. And as for those flaunt and ignore the laws and the commandments of the Almighty God, well, in return for their sins, God has removed His protection from many of them. Romans 1: 28-32. `And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient. Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice, whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to their parents, without understanding, promise breakers, unloving, implacable, unmerciful; Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they that commit such things are worthy of death, not only commit the same, but also take pleasure in them that do likewise.` We mere flesh and blood humans, if we do not have the protection of our heavenly Father and of His Son, Jesus Christ, then we are in no position to withstand the onslaught and the temptations of Satan and his millions of demons. Satan is so arrogant and presumptuous (and some may say unwise) that he even attempted to try and tempt very God Himself (when He came down upon this earth as Jesus Christ), with the promise of complete release from any future suffering that He would have to endure on the torture stake (the `cross`) if only He would bow down and worship him. Matthew 4: 8-10. `Again, Satan takes Him (Jesus) up to the top of a very high mountain and shows Him all of the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them. And says to Him, all these things will I give to You, if You will fall down and worship me. Then Jesus says to him, get you from here Satan, for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.` We, in comparison to Jesus Christ, and without Christ in our hearts and our minds, are so desperately weak and feeble, but with Him, well let`s read Ephesians 6: 11-13. `Put on the whole armour of God so that you will be able to withstand the schemes of the devil. For we do not fight against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Therefore put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all to stand.` Unfortunately for us humans, carnal minds are all too easily drawn to the allures of sin in all of its` many` attractive` shapes and forms. It is so easy for us to commit sin and become committed to it, and the` rewards` of sin are usually instant and sensually gratifying, fulfilling the lusts of the flesh. But these feelings and sensations are doomed to be short lived, whereas the rewards of righteous living are very seldom immediate because usually, they are not so easy for us to attain, they require effort and will- power. Often, as a person begins to grow spiritually, righteous living sometimes appears to become beyond their ability, but by drawing on past experience and using faith motivated persistence and prayer, it can gradually be achieved. The important thing is never to give up trying! And what of the rewards for all of this constant striving and battling to overcome our weak, carnal minds? Well, in this life we are granted enough of them to keep our` spirits up` and to provide us with a way out of` troubles and danger but as we should appreciate, our real, unimaginable rewards are not to be given to us in this world at this time or in this life, they await our entering into life eternal. The Lord knows how difficult it is for us, because He, as Jesus Christ, experienced the things that any true Christian will experience. He tells us this in Matthew 5: 11-12. `Blessed are you when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall falsely say all manner of evil against you because you follow My ways. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for they also persecuted the prophets that came before you, in like manner.` And in the book of Revelation, He says, Revelation 22: 12. `Behold, I come quickly, and My reward (for you) is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be.` To commit sin is easy, real easy, so to a right thinking mind there can be no sense of achievement in committing it, sin is not clever and any dumb idiot can do it! Let`s have a look at a scripture that more or less gives us the basic outline, the template, of what the world`s mainstream` christian` churches have done to make them the way that they are, it`s a recipe for people popularity and financial success in this world, but a recipe for death and utter destruction in the next. This is what the Israelites said to Moses` brother, Aaron, after Moses had been away from them on mount Sinai for weeks on end, Acts 7: 40-41. `Saying to Aaron, Make gods to go before us: and as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we don`t know what has become of him. And so they made a golden calf in those days, and offered sacrifices to this idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.` See how easy it is? Any would-be` christian` church can make their own` god`, it can be anything that anybody wants. But, in order to impress it`s best to apply some more effort and fancy trappings, use the names of actual people from the scriptures and then introduce a lot of glitzy, meaningless, though seemingly meaningful, ceremony. And then the rules can be made up, nothing too hard and certainly nothing that the public wouldn`t want. For example, make them aware of sin and then give them an easy` get out` from it, they`ll have to pay of course, but after you`ve threatened them with eternal, agonizing hell- fire and damnation, they`ll be only too willing to cough up the dosh. Yes, people will be delighted to know that they can actually buy their salvation, the more that they pay, the more and the better their `god` will think of them and reward them in the next life. What a nice little extortion racket has been started, and it will just grow and grow! Now let`s have a read of Isaiah 44: 8-9. `Fear you not, neither be afraid, have not I told you from that time, and have declared it? you are even My witness, Is there a God beside Me? There is no other God, I know not any. They that make a graven image (an idol) are all of them vanity, and the things that they have desired shall not profit them. They are their own witnesses, they see not nor know, so that they may be ashamed. verses 12-17. `The smith with the tongs works in the hot coals and shapes it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms, but he begins to hunger, and his strength fails, he drinks no water and he feels faint. The carpenter stretches out his rule, he marks it with a line, he shapes it with planes and he marks it out with a compass, and makes it into the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man so that it may remain in the house. He cuts down cedars and takes the cyprus and the oak, which he secures for himself amongst the trees of the forest, he plants an ash tree and the rain feeds it Then shall it be for a man to burn, to warm himself by, yes he lights it and bakes bread, he makes a god and worships it, he makes it an idol and bows down to it. He burns part of it in the fire and with another part he cooks flesh, he roasts and is satisfied, he is warmed by the fire and is satisfied, and from the rest of the wood he makes for himself a god, an idol, he bows down and worships it, and prays to it saying deliver me, for you are my god. They have not known nor understood, for He has shut their eyes so that they cannot see, and also their hearts so that they cannot understand. And none of them stop to think, they have no knowledge or understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire, I have also baked bread upon its` hot coals, I have roasted flesh over it and eaten it, and shall I then proceed to make the bit of wood that is left over into an abominable idol? should I bow down to the stock of a tree?` Please Go To Part Two.

Part Two

So what is to become of these idolatrous congregations within their large and lavish `churches`, what is to be their real reward? Ephesians 5: 5-7. `For this you know, that no whoremonger nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with empty words, for because of these things comes the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be you not, therefore, partakers with them.` This is a grave warning, and the scriptures are crammed with such warnings, but if a person has not read the holy words of the Lord God for themselves, then it stands to reason that they really cannot know of them for certain. Their perverted clergy cannot be relied upon to give them the true words of God in their true context, after all, they stand to lose a very cushy and lucrative living by giving people the truth! The question must be asked, why then, apart from the money making aspect, have all of the mainstream `christian` clergy deliberately ignored all of the scriptural warnings about that which they practice? particularly when they blasphemously give the misleading impression that they do all of these things with the authority and the blessing of the Lord God. Does it sound as if these are truly Christian priests and ministers judging by the way that they disrespect and ignore the commandments and the teachings of Jesus Christ? And if they are not Christian priests and ministers, then I ask the question again, whose clergy are they? These clergy have arrogantly and conveniently for themselves taken on board the erroneous idea that they somehow have come to know the Lord God and His ways so well, that it has made them over-familiar and sloppy and disrespectful towards Him, even going so far as to imagine that really, `God is like us`, when in truth, they should know that the one true God is nothing like them at all, and that they should humbly get down on their knees and earnestly pray for His forgiveness, and that it is they who should be striving to be like Him. But, let's face it, you cannot be like somebody who you do not know! Let us then not fall into the trap of making Jesus Christ (spiritually, and in our own minds) more like us, rather, we should come to and then stand fast to the knowledge of the fact that we should be constantly striving to be more like Him! How many of these clergy realize, or even care, that by inventing their own ceremonies, their own feast days and observances, by ignoring and doing away with the fourth commandment and putting in place of the Sabbath day, a totally different day, and blasphemously calling it 'sunday', that they are in fact imputing that God is a liar?! They have said in their evil and corrupt hearts, 'O yes, God says to do this, and keep that day or feast, but most of it's old testament, all Jewish 'stuff' and fable, and anyway He'll forgive us all of our sins` no matter what we do because He's a loving God`. Well, it's true, our God is a loving God, but He is not one to be trifled or fooled around with, and He means what He says, and more importantly, He means what He has said in the scriptures, and that includes the old testament! He is not a liar or a fanciful, easy-going dreamer, and He does not make idle threats! Let's read Malachi 3: 5-9. 'And I will come near to you to judgment, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the unfaithful, and against false swearers, and against those who oppress the worker by not paying him enough, the widow and the fatherless, and that turn away the stranger, and who do not fear Me, says the Lord of hosts. For I am the Lord, I do not change : therefore you sons of Jacob are not consumed. Even from the days of your fathers, you have turned aside from My ordinances (laws) and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you, says the Lord of hosts. But you said, Wherein shall we return? Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, Wherein have we robbed You? In tithes and in offerings. You are cursed with a curse; because you have robbed Me, even this whole nation.` and now verses 13-15. 'Your words have been arrogant against Me, says the Lord. yet you say, What have we spoken arrogantly against You? You have said, It is pointless to serve God, and what profit is there for us if we have kept His laws and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts? And now we call the proud, happy, yes, they that work wickedness are set up, and even they who tempt God, are delivered.` But the Lord does not desert His faithful nor does He let them languish for long amongst the wicked, verses 16-18. 'Then they that feared the Lord spoke one to another, and the `Lord listened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon His name. And they shall be mine, says the Lord of hosts, in that day that I make up My jewels, and I will spare them in the same way that a man spares his own son that serves him. Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between he who serves God, and he that does not serve Him.` Let's read from a bit further on, Malachi 4: 1-4. 'For behold, the day comes (it has not arrived yet!) that shall burn as an oven, and all the proud, yes, and they that commit wickedness shall be as stubble, and the day that comes (is yet to come) shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, That it shall leave them neither root nor branch. but to you who revere My Name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in His wings; and you shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall. And you shall tread down the wicked, because they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the Lord of hosts. Remember you the law of Moses My servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, with the laws and judgments.` We can understand from the reading of this scripture that this is an event which is still to happen, and have the laws which were given to Moses for the whole of Israel (and Israel includes most of the `white` races of the world) been `nailed to the cross`, done away with? No, most certainly not, as the Lord Himself states in the last sentence of that scripture. There will of course be forgiveness of sins for those who earnestly seek forgiveness, but, (and I wonder how many of the world's `christian` clergy take this next piece of scripture to heart?) there is one sin that will not be forgiven any man, at all! and I wonder just how many `christian` priests and ministers have committed this sin? Let's read the words of Jesus Christ in Matthew 12: 30-32. `He that is not with Me, is against Me, and he that does not gather with Me, scatters abroad. Wherefore I say to you, all manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against the holy spirit, shall not be forgiven to men. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him, but whoever speaks against the holy spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.` What else do all of these false `christian` churches and religions have in common? What can true, bible reading, law abiding Christians discern for themselves about them, and how can people discover whether the church that they are a member of, is indeed a true Christian church? We'll begin with Psalms 119: 126-128. `It is time for You, Lord, to work: for they have made void Your law. Therefore I love Your commandments above gold, yes, above fine gold. Therefore I esteem all Your ordinances concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.` True Christians know the commandments of the Lord God, and should be able to instantly recognize if and when the church that they are a member of, begins to deviate from or starts to `bend` them in any way to its own, convenient, interpretations. For example, decorations, embellishments and trappings might be slowly introduced into the worship, `they're just a focal point` being the favoured excuse. More than is appropriate `sympathy` might start to be shown towards `christmas`, `easter` and the like. The clergy may start to favour one particular member or members of the congregation over others, maybe simply because of an unseemly `blinkered attitude` but then again, on closer inspection, is money an issue? or the chance of a more elevated and `important` position in the community involved? This sort of thing happens all the time in the `christian` churches of this world, certain members being singled out for undeserved and unmerited praise, or just tolerated because of the size of their financial contributions or the prospect of such contributions. But beware, unfortunately this sort of favouritism is not strictly limited to the mainstream `christian` clergy, it can, and does occur in genuine Christian assemblies and churches. We should be thankful that the Lord God is not impressed or moved by the things that men are impressed by, He is not fooled by `smoke and mirrors`, because He discerns with a two-edged sword that penetrates to the very depths of the hearts of men. Hebrews 4: 12. `For the word of God is alive and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing in two of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.` And this is what Jesus Christ had to say to the clergy of His day, Luke 16: 15. `And He said to them, You are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knows your hearts, for that which is highly thought of amongst men is evil in the sight of God.` And in 1 Samuel 16: 7. we can read, `But the Lord said to Samuel, Do not look on his countenance or on the height of his stature, for I have rejected him, because the Lord does not see as a man sees, for a man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.` These false `christian` churches really hate and fear to lose any of their congregation, not because they are concerned for the welfare of their bretheren but because it is one less person contributing hard cash into the church coffers. Yes, a part of their livelihood will have walked out of the door and if this trend continues how will they be able to maintain their standard of `gracious` and `holy` living that they all seem to enjoy so much? Matthew 23: 27-28. `Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you are the same as whitewashed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful on the outside, but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. And you also outwardly appear to be righteous in the sight of men, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and sin.` More importantly to these modern day clergy, falling congregation numbers mean that their jobs will be at risk and their `superiors` will demand explanations come the yearly audit! Is it any wonder that they continually `pull out all the stops` to keep on the right side of their church members and to dazzle and entertain them with the theatre that their religion has become. Can you imagine, a true representative of the Lord God Almighty, pandering to the whims of men? Many people born and raised in this country of Britain and the other countries of the true Israel, have been made averse to Christianity, or more correctly that which is portrayed as Christianity, because they are not stupid and they have seen through the smoke of the theatrical pretence. They have been disgusted by the lies and the `carryings on` of the false teachers, priests and ministers and this has led them to reject `christianity`, and as a consequence true Christianity and anybody who subsequently tries to teach them true Christianity. People have quite understandably thought (but they are still guilty of not having read the bible for themselves!) that if all of this perversion and fanciful lies is Christianity, then I want nothing to do with it. What then have a lot of these disillusioned people done? Well, many have looked further afield to other religions for the `truth`, mostly eastern religions, and we can find a reference to this if we look in the book of Isaiah 2: 6. Therefore You (the Lord God) have forsaken your people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves amongst the children of strangers.` For those of us who are old enough, we can remember the huge upsurge of eastern `mysticism` in the 1960`s. This was probably when the evil seed of `eastern ways` was planted in the receptive, fertile minds of many a teenager growing up in those days, days in which the youth of the time were hungry for carefree and careless experimentation with the new and the different, and damn the consequences, much as it still is today with modern western youth. The 1960`s were the harbinger of rebellion for youth against their parents and their upbringing and unfortunately many of the age-old, traditional, biblical based values that went with it. Now, most of that young 1960`s generation have not only raised children of their own, but are now seeing their grandchildren growing up. So what can we make now of the `hippie` dream of `drop in, and drop out`? Well, it did not work then (except for `real` hippies who managed to survive, whose parents were so rich that they didn`t even have to bother about making a living!) and it most certainly does not work now as we can witness for ourselves by the increasing number of drug-orientated and addicted lifestyles that fuel the crimes-committed figures and make life a misery for all who come into daily contact with these wretched people. Drug abuse (and this includes the `legal` drugs such as alcohol) is crippling and bringing down to destruction the whole of western society along of course with corruption in every high and low public office. This is what happens to a people when a false `god` is worshipped. And when that particular people just happen to be one of the Lord God`s chosen people, then the whole world is going to suffer the consequences. (See the article: `When Israel Sins, The Whole World Suffers) Is our society any `freer` than it was in the 1960`s? Our society now is one in which honest, law abiding people are being stifled and punished by unjust, stupid and childishly overprotective man-made `laws` supposedly designed to deter the criminally minded but which the criminals pay no attention to whatsoever, leaving only the honest and the decent people to be sorely affected by trying to obey them and being the only ones who are punished when these `laws` are broken! For example, there are crippling taxes imposed upon the population, in part to fight crime we are told, but only honest, working people pay them, whilst the dishonest and the criminals in prison are fed, clothed, housed, kept amused and entertained and get all the best medical and dental care immediately, no hospital waiting lists for prisoners, no such thing as a neglected prisoner, you never hear of prisoners being left to die alone and uncared for! Yes, in our increasingly pagan society the thief and the murderer do whatever they want and they don't care if they get caught and imprisoned because they know that no matter how long or short their sentence may be (and the sentences are getting shorter because it is costing more and more to keep these prisoners in the comfortable, carefree lifestyle that they have now become accustomed to) they will serve it in pleasant surroundings with a guaranteed four, hot, square meals a day. They have TV, library, gymnasium, internet access, Open University degree courses, they are bedded down warm and secure of a night with no worries about heating or the paying of bills, and much, much more it is that they have to `rehabilitate them`. Well, what right thinking prisoner wants to become `rehabilitated` when they have all of these good things going for them inside of prison? And it's all free for them because the tax payer and their victims are paying the bill! And outside of the prisons we have raised a generation that are bringing the National Health Service to its` knees, drug abuse aside, we have a load of incapable, heathen wimps who are only too ready to dial the emergency services or go to the casualty department of their nearest hospital because they`ve `suffered` a slight cut or a bruise or they`ve a bout of hiccups. Out on our streets we have free-roaming, cowardly thugs who prey on the elderly, the young and the infirm whilst the police who are supposed to uphold `the law` and deal with these malcontents are out and about laying traps for and convicting motorists! What a great way to run a society, I wonder who dreamt up this Satanic system? *The so-called `christian` clergy of this country and of this world are mostly to blame for all of this, yes they are, for years and years now they have been going around bleating things like, `all you need to do to be saved and forgiven of your sins is to `just believe`, or go to the `confessional box` and buy off your sins, or just donate money to the church coffers on a regular basis, thereby giving people the impression that they can do just whatsoever they want to do as long as they have paid in cash and also, as far as God is concerned, be forgiven of it by Him. Well I've got news for them, belief by itself is worthless, it means nothing and it gets you nothing in the way of any good thing from the Lord God, and as for money, well the Lord holds it in contempt along with the people who try to buy their forgiveness and their salvation and those who promote such things! There is no longer any righteous law in this country or in the world at large that is being fully upheld, because the one true God and His law have been forsaken, Isaiah 59: 12-15. `For our sins are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them. In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart, words of falsehood. And judgment is turned away backward, and justice stands afar off: for truth has fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter in. Yes, truth fails, and he that departs from evil makes himself a prey; and the Lord saw this, and it displeased Him that there was no judgment.` As I stated earlier, the `christian` clergy of this world are mostly to blame for this disastrous state of affairs, but this does not mean that mankind can dump all of their own sinning ways firmly at their clergy`s feet, no, for every individual has a responsibility for the way that they have conducted themselves whilst in this life, and they will be held accountable for the wrongs that they have done, let`s read from two scriptures, Acts 17: 29-30. `Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to imagine that the Godhead is like to gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man`s device. During the time of this ignorance (long since passed) God overlooked this sinful error, but now commands all men everywhere to repent.` and Phillipians 2: 12. `Wherefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not only when I am here with you,* but now much more when I am not here with you, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. When, as in Acts 17., the scripture states, now commands all men everywhere to repent, we should bear in mind that when the apostle Paul spoke these words it was over 2,000 years ago, so how much closer are we now to the final judgment day? Since those words were spoken the `christian` churches and the people of this world have had ample time to amend and correct their ways, but instead they have just got worse and worse. Just how much longer do they think that they have got in which they can try the patience of our great God by ignoring His appointed feast days, ceremonies, laws and commandments and by worshipping idols and a false `god`, before the great and final day of judgment? Let's read Amos 8: 7-10. The Lord has sworn by the excellency of Jacob; Surely, I will never forget any of their works. Shall not the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned the same as the flood of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, says the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day: And I will turn your feasts (christmas, easter etc.) into mourning, and all of your songs into laments, and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

Another thing that these mainstream `christian` churches have in common is effort. A huge effort has been and is being made by each and every one of their clergy and most of their congregations to raise money and to make money, this is the main driving force behind them, because with money comes power. Unbeknown to the vast majority of the millions who make up the congregations of these churches, God and religion have become a convenient and a convincing `front`. They are the `face` that the `high ups` in these controlling, power hungry hierarchical priesthoods want those who are not privy to their Satanic schemes, to see. A huge effort is taken to keep their precious church buildings and their palaces in splendid array, they even charge people for admittance to the bigger ones! Their priests and ministers and other such people (nuns etc.) are all either well paid or catered for or both, for example, when was the last time that you saw a shabby looking nun (maybe a `sister of the poor`!) sitting on an aeroplane? Then they have the gaul to explain all of this wealth by claiming that they are `blessed by God`. Well it is not my God nor is it the God of any true Christian who has `blessed` them. Therefore the question arises once again, what `god` is it that they worship? When the time comes, and it is not far off now, when the fruits of their huge effort are to be called for to be weighed in the balances, but the balances will remain empty, why? well, who bothers to weigh rotten fruit? it is simply thrown out and burned. All of the man-made ceremonies and the man-ordained `holy` days and the worship of saints and of idols and of the `virgin Mary`, only succeed in angering the Lord God and damning those who practice such things. For all of these abominable practices are the creations inspired by the evil one, Satan the devil, the `god` of this world who is worshipped by the majority of so-called `christians` without most of them even realising it! Yes, Satan and his vast army of demons have been working tirelessly for thousands of years continually seeking out people who are greedy for wealth, and who are power hungry and who will be tempted by such things to `sell` their very soul in exchange for a lifetime of that wealth and power, and then as a further part of the `deal` lead millions of others astray by `selling` them the lie of the false worship practiced by the mainstream `christian` churches. They do all of this with a boldness inspired by the belief in the empty promise (the lie) instigated by Satan, of the immortality of the soul and of the immutable right of all people to eternal life, in the erroneous belief that God will forgive them their sins no matter what they have done. This self same lie is nothing new for Satan, remember what he said to Eve in the garden of Eden? Genesis 3: 2-4. And the woman said to Satan, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden, but the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, the Lord has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, or you will die. (meaning a spiritual death) And Satan said to the woman, You will not die. (Satan thereby calls God a liar!) And unfortunately, what the large, mainstream `christian` churches of this world practice, the hundreds of smaller `christian` churches, (if not doing exactly the same thing), use as a template. Why then all of this deceit? It is because Satan is the enemy of the Lord and of mankind, he hates the Lord God, and he hates the whole of mankind, ironically particularly those who are in his (Satan`s) `employ` and do his will. (for why else would he knowingly damn their souls to utter destruction?) Yes, Satan wants to see every human being destroyed not only physically but spiritually, and for ever, and he will succeed by doing so with those who having eventually come to the truth, do not earnestly seek out the Lord and keep His commandments and ask Him for forgiveness of their sins every day. Make no mistake, everybody who has ever lived as flesh and blood human beings will come to the truth and they will then have a choice, follow the Lord God to eternal life, or follow Satan to eternal death, and for some of us living right now, that choice has already been made! Hebrews 10: 26-27. `For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain terrifying looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the enemies.` How many `christians` think that they are safe no matter what, because they cling to the misunderstood and misused quote from the scriptures, that being, all our sins have been `nailed to the cross`? This particular scripture because of the way that it has been bandied about and misunderstood has become one more tool for those who are deceived and for those who want to deceive. So let`s have a look at it in its` proper context and with proper understanding of its` meaning and we shall discover that it only applies to a certain group of people and even then it is conditional. Colossians 2: 6-14. `As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk you in His way. Rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man lead you astray with philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the workings of the world, and not after Christ, for in Him dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And you are complete in Him who is the head of all rule and power. In Whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. Buried with Him in baptism by which you are also risen with Him through the faith of the operation of God (the Father) who has raised Him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses. Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that were against us, which were contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross,` We should be able to understand quite clearly from the reading of that scripture that for the phrase `nailed to His cross` to even begin to apply to an individual, that that individual has to be a called, repented, converted, baptised Christian who, by the laying on of hands, has received a measure of the Lord God`s holy spirit, and that even then this baptized Christian does not have `carte blanche` (free will) to do just whatever they feel like doing by wilfully sinning. No, first they must endeavour to remain in the state that they were in when they first received God`s holy spirit and then spend the rest of their lives striving to better that state. There is a very dire warning for those who have been given the free gift of God`s holy spirit but have gone on to abuse it and not taken their baptism seriously, let`s refresh our memories and have another read of Hebrews 6: 4-8. `For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy spirit, and have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, if they shall fall away, for them to renew them again to repentance, seeing that they crucify to themselves the son of God anew, and put Him to an open shame. For the earth which drinks in the rain that often falls upon it, and brings forth herbs suitable for them by whom it is dressed, receives blessings from God. But that which bears thorns and briers is rejected, and is near to cursing, whose end is to be burned.` God, in the shape and form of Jesus Christ, did not come down upon this earth to do away with any of His laws, old testament or new testament! In fact, if anything, He tightened those laws! Let`s read the words of Jesus Christ in Matthew 5: 27-28. `You have heard that it was said by them of old time, thou shalt not commit adultery. But I say to you, That whosoever looks upon a woman to lust after her, has already committed adultery with her in his heart.` Let us also bear in mind that in Christ`s time upon this earth, there was no other law except that of the old testament, the new testament not having yet been written. Still in the book of Matthew, let`s read some more of Jesus` words, Matthew 5: 17-18. `Do not think that I have come to do away with the law or the prophets, for I am not come to destroy it but to fulfill it. For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass, not one small letter or mark (punctuation mark etc.) shall in no ways be deleted from the law until all be fulfilled.` Now let`s underline that last piece of scripture with this one, Romans 7: 1. `Don`t you know bretheren, (for I speak to them that know the law) how that the law has rule over a man for as long as he lives?` We should realise that this `law` is the law that commands us not to sin, and how do we avoid sin? by keeping the 10 commandments of course. Unfortunately we all of us, all too often unconsciously or otherwise, water down the Lord`s commandments by fooling ourselves that a particular thing that we do or are about to do, is not really sinning. I think we all know the frame of mind that we allow ourselves to slip into sometimes, you know the one, it goes something like this; `It`ll be alright, the Lord won`t really mind if I do this little sin or that little one, because I`m not hurting anybody.` The thing is, we are hurting ourselves spiritually. Proverbs 14: 12. `There is a way that seems right to a man, but the end thereof is the way of death.` Way back, in the early days of the old testament, people broke God`s commandments, the only difference now is that we have had Jesus Christ come and underline for us the importance of the need for those commandments to be kept and honoured, and that these days instead of just thousands of people breaking them, we now have thousands of millions breaking them! There is another evil that is espoused by the `christian` churches of this world, and that is the one that inadvertently or otherwise encourages people to break God`s commandments by them being told not to worry about punishment for any personal sin, because `we are all under grace`. Well yes, we are all under grace, but this only counts if we sin in ignorance or if, as soon as we have realised our sin, we go to the Lord in earnest, repentance prayer and sincerely ask Him for forgiveness and then try our best not to repeat that particular sin. Romans 6: 14-16. `For sin shall not have dominion over you: for you are not under the law but under grace. What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? God forbid! Don`t you know that to whom you yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants you become whom you obey, whether servants of sin which leads to death, or servants of obedience to the law which leads to righteousness.` If we remain in the book of Romans, we can read another scripture that warns us as individuals and as churches to beware of false teachers and teachings, and we should realise that the only sure way of knowing if we are being deceived or not, is by reading and becoming knowledgeable of the biblical scriptures, new testament and old testament which, contrary to the belief and teachings of many clergy of all religions, is not a collection of Jewish fables! (Which one day, they will find out to their cost!) If people become lazy about their duty towards educating themselves about their Creator and His laws, and subsequently `leave all of that to the clergy`, then how are these people to know when they are being led astray by a load of very deliberate, Satanic make-believe and dangerous lies, and how can this next important scripture be of any use to them? Romans 16: 17-18. `Now I beseech you bretheren, note well those who cause divisions and offences contrary to the (correct) teachings which you have learned; and avoid them. For these are such who do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own bellies; for by kind words and fair speeches they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.` Let`s back up the thrust of that scripture with the words of Jesus Christ in Mark 12: 38-40. `And He (Jesus) said to them in His teaching, Beware of the teachers of the law, who love to be seen walking in their long clothing, and love the recognition of the people in the market places and the most important seats in the synagogues, and the best rooms at feasts; who take over widows` houses and for appearances sake make long prayers: for these shall receive greater damnation.` Now as if all of this false worship, idolatry, money grabbing, lies and deceit were not enough (leaving aside, for the moment, all of the child perversion and pornography that many of these `christian` clergy indulge themselves in see other articles on this website) these `christians` don`t even bother to keep the God given and ordained Sabbath, no, they have invented a `holy` day of their own and they have called it SUNday, which on reflection, may not be too bad a thing because at least it keeps the true Sabbath free of being sullied by their abominations! True Christian bretheren should meet together whenever they can on the Sabbath day and read and discuss the scriptures and consider and prove any `new` knowledge that has come to light, because God is constantly revealing new snippets of information from the scriptures to those who diligently read His word. No one person has all of the knowledge of God`s word imparted to them, each member of the true Christian church should have a contribution to make even if it is only asking questions, thus making the Sabbath day a joy for all to take part in, nobody needs to feel left out or confused. As the scriptures tell us, we are all members of the body of Christ, and if we are all members then we all have a job to do. 1 Corinthians 12: 12-14. and 27. `For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are yet one body, so also is Christ. For by one spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be slaves or free, and have all been made to drink of that one spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. Now you have become the members that make up the body of Christ.` True Christians have no need of and do not need any of the `glitzy` alluring trappings that the false `christian` churches abundantly deck themselves with, because true Christians and true Christian churches (the congregations, not the buildings!) worship the Lord God in spirit. Let`s read the words of Jesus Christ in John 4: 23-24. `But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeks such to worship Him. God is spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.` Let`s think about what these words `worship Him in spirit`, mean. Do these words mean, (as many `christians` seem to think they mean), that as they believe that they have allowed God`s holy spirit to somehow enter into their lives via some perverted clergyman or clergywoman performing some blasphemous, quasi-Christian `smoke and mirrors` ceremony, that they are now free to do whatever they feel that it is right for them to do, because basically, they can no longer sin in the eyes of the Lord? Well if they think this, then they are so, so wrong! This is dangerous, Satanic inspired thinking! What kind of `witnessing` can we suppose that these `christians` are giving to the world at large? Is it any wonder that these deceived `christians` by the things that they do and say, are driving millions of people to look elsewhere, beyond Christianity, for spiritual guidance? If only the world would realise that what they perceive to be true Christianity is in fact a Satanically driven false church, and that when they walk away from this church they are more often than not attracted to yet another Satanically driven false church, only in another shape and form! Let's have a look at Jeremiah 4: 22. `For My people are foolish, they have not known Me, they are stupid children, and they have no understanding: they are clever at doing evil, but to do good, they don't have the knowledge.` The priests and the ministers of the world's false `christian` churches have led millions of people astray, and by their behaviour have deterred millions more from even thinking about becoming a Christian, and they shall not be held blameless! Now we'll take a look at 2 Peter 2: 9 - onwards. picking out the necessary scriptures as we go, but you should read it all for yourselves later. `The Lord knows how to deliver the Godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. And (they) shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, the same as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are, and blemishes, revelling in their own deceit whilst at the same time they feast with you. Having eyes full of adultery, and that which cannot cease from sin: enticing unstable (weak) souls; they have their heart exercised in covetous practices; they are cursed children. These are wells without water, clouds carried on the storm, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they entice through the desires of the flesh, through much sinfulness, those who had barely escaped from them who live in error. For while they promise them freedom, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for by whom a man is overcome (influenced by) by that same man he is brought into becoming his slave.` Now, verse 20, and I would like any `christian` clergy who just might be reading this article, to pay particular attention to this verse, verse 20. `For if they have escaped (or been given the knowledge of the opportunity to escape) the corruptions of this world through the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and they then again become involved with them and overcome by them, then the latter end for them is worse than the beginning.` There is only one `Person` to whom every man should be looking to, and to admire and follow, and He is to be found within the pages of every true Christian bible. The knowledge of this Person is not hidden away or written in code, therefore all people on this earth who have access to a Christian bible, have no excuse whatsoever to plead ignorance of His commandments and requirements. Romans 1: 19-20. `Because that which may be known of God, is known to them, because God has shown it to them. Because the invisible things concerning Him from the creation of the world are clearly evident, being understood by the things that are made, and this includes His eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.` Going back to the garden of Eden, when Eve was tempted to sin by Satan the devil, and then in turn Eve persuaded Adam to sin, and then all the blame and the finger pointing began; although the Lord's command was disobeyed, (and let us make no mistake, it was), it had to be this way if mankind was to ever achieve understanding beyond that of a small child. Growing up has always been `painful` and there have always been evil people and influences around who try to corrupt the growing mind and spirit. The way to spiritually succeed in this life and to be acceptable in our heavenly Father's eyes, is to recognise the evil (in all of it's many `pleasant` shapes and forms) and to reject it out of hand. It was and it still is, the Lord God's intention for us, His created children, to have a definite beginning but not for us to remain there, and not in the least spiritually. Materially and technically, the people and the nations of this world have progressed in great leaps and bounds but alas, spiritually, most are still way back there in time, in the garden of Eden, still falling into the temptation of Satan the devil, and still worshipping this `god`, (in his churches and by his methods) that led the whole human race to commit sin in the first place. Let's read Jeremiah: 7: 23-28. `But this thing I commanded them, Obey My voice and I will be your God, and you shall be My people; and walk you in all of the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you. But they did not listen or incline their ear, but instead walked in the counsels and the imaginations of their evil heart, and went backwards and not forwards. Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent to you My servants the prophets daily, rising up early and sending them. Still they did not listen to Me nor incline their ear, but they hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. Therefore you shall speak all of these words to them, but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. Even so you shall say to them, This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the Lord their God, nor receives correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouths. Consequently, the whole world is now a slave to the lie, a slave to sin and therefore committed to receive the wages of sin which is death. Romans 6: 23. `For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God, (should you decide to accept it) is eternal life, achieved by way of Jesus Christ our Lord.` The Lord will not be patient with the evil people, priests and ministers, false prophets and rulers of this world for much longer now, let`s hope that none of us reading this will ever have to experience the wrath of the most high, living God! Let`s have two more scriptures to finish, Amos 4: 11-12. `I have overthrown some of you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning, and still you have not returned to Me, says the Lord. Therefore this is what I will do to you O Israel, because I will do this to you, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.` And combine that scripture with this one Hebrews 10: 30-31. `For we know Him that has said, Vengeance is Mine, I will repay, says the Lord, and again, The Lord shall judge His people. It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.` Which `god` is being worshipped? well I hope that now, you know!
