

IS JESUS A CHRISTIAN? At first, this may appear to be a somewhat stupid or even, to some, a blasphemous question and so I will re-phrase it. Do you suppose that if our Lord and God Creator, Jesus Christ, was to set His foot again upon this earth, right now, in this present day and age, would He, do you suppose be able to and readily identify Himself with any of today's so-called 'christians' and 'christian' churches and of the things done by these churches that are being perpetrated in his holy name? Well, I for one do not think so, not a chance really, for instance, would Jesus recognize as being anything at all of His the likes of easter or christmas or the numerous and ever increasing 'saints' days that world's churches love inventing for themselves? Would He recognize as anything of His any of the so-called 'holy days' which have been commanded and instituted by the mainstream 'christian' churches? Would he recognize as anything of His any of the ceremonies and religious rites practised by these churches in His name? Would He recognize as anything of His the way that these church systems are organized, set up and run being governed as they are in a pyramidal hierarchy from the top down? Would He recognize as anything of His the worship of 'holy' relics and carved lumps of wood and stone and moulded plaster 'saints' or the sanctity of various large and expensive to run buildings which they call churches? Would He recognize as anything of His the enforced celibate life of thousands of priests? Would He recognize as anything of His the private and segregated religious communities which have cossetted themselves using the money of the poor to build strong protected buildings to keep out the real world and indulge themselves on the sumptuousness within? communities where the people who live within their protective confines only venture forth to extort even more money from their deceived congregations by holding their bogus 'christian' ceremonies and rituals and making threats of eternal hell fire and damnation to anybody who dares questions the validity of the things that they do in the great God's name. Yes, they keep their church congregations in ignorance of the truth by terrorizing them with Satanic lies about how they must pay unquestioning homage to their priests and that money donated to the church will, if given in sufficient quantity, assure them of eternal life and a reserved place in heaven, remember what Jesus had to say about money? I'll paraphrase from Matthew 22: 19-21., 'Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's and unto God, that which is God's'. Does our great God, care anything at all about money? Does He use it? does He value it? is not the world and all it's gold and other precious things in it already His? how then can salvation be bought with money? rather it is the reverse, it is damnation that the love of money will buy for a person and that especially includes all the perverted priests and ministers of this world who daily blaspheme the name of our great God by the lies and the perversions that they so freely indulge themselves in at the expense of their cowering and spiritually lost congregations. Would Jesus recognize as being any of His the theory (and that's all it is a theory) of evolution, this Satanic lie which, because it has been accepted by so many professing Christians, casts doubt on the very words of God and thus the authenticity of the whole bible especially the old testament wherein lie all of the ancient God given laws which have all so conveniently been misinterpreted or overruled or even dismissed out of hand by the world's so called 'christian' churches? Would Jesus recognize as being any of His all of the sadistic and Satanically inspired behaviour which has so many times been exposed by the world's media which has and is being perpetrated in some of these 'christian' church's schools and orphanages and other institutions especially those involved in the supposed protection and upbringing of innocent and vulnerable children? Well, as any right thinking and decent true Christian knows, the answer to all of these questions is NO,... NO, NO, NO, NO, NO, Jesus would not recognize any of these things or this behaviour as having anything at all to do with Him, and yet it is all blasphemously being constantly churned out and perpetrated in his name, is it any wonder that the scripture states in Isaiah 52:5. `...and My name continually every day is blasphemed.` Probably the most important question that we should be asking is, would Jesus Christ our God and Creator, recognize as being His, the so-called `sunday` as being His set aside, special, weekly holy day Sabbath? well no, it is an invention of the roman catholic church, you will not find it mentioned anywhere in the bible, by keeping sunday, the people who keep it are deliberately refusing to keep the fourth commandment(see Exodus 20: 8-11.) Sunday, as a holy day of God the Father and God the Son, is an outright LIE. The recognition of and the keeping of the true Sabbath day is SO important that it was made a commandment and the breaking of any of God`s commandments is not something that should be undertaken lightly, if at all. All of the so called `christian` professing religions and their congregations should try and find within the pages of their own bibles any reference at all to the ceremonies and the rites and the `holy` days that they so ardently keep and protect, they should but I`ll save them the trouble, they will not find easter, christmas, hallo`een, or any `saints` days or alms days, the list goes on, but they will find the likes of this...`Bring no more vain oblations, incense is an abomination to Me, your new moons and sabbaths the calling of assemblies I cannot bear with them it is evil, even your solemn meetings. Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates they are a trouble to Me and I am tired of excusing you for them...` read it all in Isaiah 1: 10-20. All of these false feast days and ceremonies are Satanically inspired, and they are playing their part very successfully in bringing this present Babylonian world order system to its` rapid and horrific end, and when that happens, I know whose side I want to be on and in whose grace and favour I want to be in, Jesus Christ`s. God will not allow this present state of affairs to continue for much longer now, He hates all of the lies and deceit that is being churned out in His Glorious Name, remember the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah, what the Lord did to those two evil cities? but for all of their sin, as great as it was, it is as nothing compared to what the world now practices as being `acceptable` and the `norm`, and if this was not bad enough, at least the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah did not go about committing their monstrous sins in the name of God the Father and Jesus Christ, unlike the great `christian` religions of this world do now. Back to Isaiah 1: and now verses 18-20. here we find our God offering the people one last chance to change but if they will not...`if you refuse and rebel you shall be destroyed with the sword, the mouth of the Lord has spoken it.` Only within the last few years or so it was announced that within what was once part of the royal city of king David, Tel Aviv, there are movements afoot to promote it as the `homosexual capital of the world`, how well then do the inspired words of the Lord found in Isaiah 1: 21., apply to this situation, they read...`How is the faithful city become a harlot, it was once full of judgment, righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers`. How, some will ask, can homosexuality be equated with murder? well, in God`s eyes the consequences of ANY sin is death and the scriptures state this quite clearly, Let`s have a look at Romans 6: 23. `For the wages of sin is death...` and we should all realize that anybody who deliberately flouts and disobeys any of God`s laws or that encourages another person to break them by whatsoever means, will be guilty not only of their own fate but also of the murder of the person that they have deliberately led astray. But a born homosexual is a born homosexual, I hear the cry, just as a cripple is born a cripple, yes, this is so, and we are all sinners in one way shape and form in the eyes of our God, but we are expected to recognize and repent of our individual shortcomings and sins as best that we can, continually striving not to let them get the better of us, we are NOT expected by our God to be encouraged to indulge ourselves freely and without due concern in our imperfections and our sexual perversions because if we continue down that path of behaviour and thinking, it will not be long before things such as child molestation and rape become morally acceptable and legal. Our sins have NOT `been nailed to the cross` and done away with as some perverted so called christians and christian churches of this world would have us believe, in Matthew 5: 17-18. we can read these very words of Jesus Christ...`Do not think that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets, for I am come not to destroy but to fulfill, for truly I say to you, until heaven and earth cease to exist, not one letter or punctuation mark will in no way be removed from the law until all the law be fulfilled.` In the book of Jeremiah, chapter 10. verses 1-4 read as follows: `Hear you the word that the Lord speaks to you O house of Israel, thus says the Lord, learn not the way of the heathen , and do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven as the heathens are dismayed by them, for the customs of the people are vain, one of them will cut a tree out of the forest using an axe, then the people proceed to adorn it with silver and gold, they make it steady with fastenings of nails so that it will not fall..` It is clearly stated, `Learn not the way of the heathen..` and yet here, pictured in those few words from Jeremiah, is an event that is practised by every so called `christian` church and its` members every year, even twice a year for some of them, they just can't get enough of it, does the description of this event, this pagan, heathen ritual that they practice, seem familiar? it should because it is an almost perfect description of the raising and the decorating of a so called `christmas` tree, how many thousands of years ago was this account in Jeremiah written? and we think society has moved on so much, a person would not unreasonably expect that in these times of fast living and super technology, internet highways and the like, they would have at least by now have created a hologram of a `christmas` tree, just switch it on, as and when it was felt to be needed, but silly me, I was forgetting, where would all the ceremony be in merely doing that? where would all the mass, happy, hysteria be? Think, is it any wonder at all that the majority of these large `christian` churches have conveniently, for them, done away with the old testament and its` constant reminders of the vile practices which they perform in the name of God? But all is not lost, some of us can take heart, because we know that there is one VERY important Person in the new testament who did not and still has not, done away with any of God`s laws and if anything has magnified them, let`s look at what Jesus Christ says in Matthew 5: 27-28. `You have heard that it was said by them of old time that you shall not commit adultery, but I say to you that whomsoever looks on a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.` In Romans 3: 31. the apostle Paul also has something to say about the law of God, it reads as this...`Because we have faith, does that then mean that the law does not apply to us? God, forbid, rather we establish the law`. What then should we suppose that the professing `christians` of this world make of these words in Romans, if anything at all? it`s so easy to ignore bits of scripture that are upsetting to a person, so easy to find others that feel the same way and if there are enough people who feel likewise aggrieved well, why not start a church? Call it something like `the reformed words of God church` or more accurately, `the words of God, reformed, church` or totally accurately, `the words of God, ignored, church`. So, is the law of the old testament done away with because of the existence of new testament? no, not one bit, whenever Jesus Christ refers to the law, He is of course referring to the whole law of the old testament, remember, the new testament was not even written in Christ's lifetime. So what then do we find that has and is happening with the world's `christian` churches, well it would appear that whenever they come across a law that offends them or their congregations, depending of course on the majority of public opinion, just like politicians, they either twist it to suit their own purposes or they ignore it, how convenient for them. Well, the question may reasonably be asked, how is it that these blasphemous and blatant lying omissions and alterations to God's laws, are so hard for the average church-goer to recognize? It is of course because of Satan's influence but also because of the fact that generally most `christians` of this world have become lazy, accepting every word of their priests and ministers without double checking it for themselves by consulting their own bibles, how many of them I wonder have even picked up the bible for themselves and read it? and I don't just mean the odd scripture here and there and that usually read out of context and usually only in the first four gospels of the new testament. They may not realize it but they are leaving their very salvation in the hands of their deceiving priests and ministers when instead they should be working it out for themselves as it states in Philippians 2: 12. `...work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.` Unfortunately, people are only too willing to do exactly what they imagine will be alright in God's eyes and when things start to go seriously wrong, when tragedy strikes, or loved ones die in terrible and/or unexpected circumstances, more often than not, the first `person` that is blamed is God, and this is so easy and convenient for them to do, shift all of the blame onto our loving God's shoulders, no need for them to feel any guilt about what has happened, it's all God's fault, when the odds are that God doesn't even know them because they have never made the effort to get know Him. How do I get to know God then? some may ask, well, a good place for them to start, ironically, would be to stop, stop and stand back from their current way of living their lives and falsely worshipping in false `christian` churches and keeping abominable pagan and Satanic `holy` days and festivals because if they do not then they will continue to remain blind to the truth and over the years become less and less able to withstand the onslaught of more and more Satanic lies and entrapments and become more and more reliant on having to run to their priests and ministers who by then will probably have less idea about the truth and what to do when Satan really begins to `turn the screw`, than they themselves. Unfortunately many of the world's `christian` churches and their respective congregations no longer possess any receptiveness to the truth, for they have been weaned on carnally attractive doctrines of Satanic lies, and when the truth is offered to them they have a tendency to rage against it and the person offering it to them with a Satanic venom, they seem not able to accept reasoned argument and only remain silent until they can no longer contain themselves and then they begin to blurt out a well rehearsed tirade which may or may not have anything to do with the topic currently being discussed. As the years progress, the Satanically weaned and indoctrinated personality can be perceived to not be able to create anything in truth, it can only truly destroy the truth and encourage others to do likewise, it has become everything that is in direct opposition to love and for a true definition of love let's read what 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8. has to say: `Love suffers long and is kind, love does not envy it does not boast of itself and it is not arrogant, it does not indulge in unseemly behaviour it is not selfish nor is it easily provoked and it imagines no wrong of others, it does not rejoice in iniquity but in the truth, it puts up with all things and doubts not, it hopes all things and endures all things, love never fails unlike prophecies which shall fail and tongues and knowledge which shall pass away. At this juncture I will mention that I know that some reading this will be thinking 'but haven't our sins been 'nailed to the cross'? well let's see what the bible is really saying about this, let's start by reading it in its full and proper context, it's in Colossians 2: 13-14. 'And you being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of the flesh has He made alive together with Himself having forgiven you all trespasses, blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us and which was contrary to us and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross.' If we read carefully we can identify exactly what is being said here, in verse 13 it states, 'having forgiven you all trespasses..' the word forgiven, it implies the past tense, and so when combined with verse 14, it means that Christ has nailed all of our PAST sins to the cross, just as baptism cleanses us of our PAST sins, it does not mean that we have been given 'carte blanche', the freedom, to commit sins as and when we want without receiving any punishment for committing those sins. As with any newly committed sin, the person who has sinned should go on their knees before God, tell Him of the sin and ask His forgiveness, but beware, this apparent loophole does not give the serial sinner an easy way out, the Lord is not stupid, He may suffer fools to a degree, but in no way will He ever suffer somebody who dares to think that He is a fool. So, although our sins can be forgiven us, we must constantly strive not to sin, Jesus said as much to the woman who was caught in the very act of adultery, we can read of it in John 8: 10-11. ... 'When Jesus rose to His feet and saw nobody else but the woman, He said to her, 'Woman, where are your accusers?' Hasn't anybody condemned you? She said, Nobody my Lord, and Jesus said, Then neither do I condemn you, go, and do not sin any more.' If we were to think along the lines of the people who insist that no matter what they do, their sins will be covered, 'nailed to the cross', then it must of necessity follow that Jesus Christ came down upon this earth to suffer a slow, agonizing, torture induced death on our behalf, so that sin may freely abound. Is that what He did? No, no He did not, Let's take a look at Romans 5: 20-21. and 6: 1-2. ... 'Moreover the law entered that the offence might abound. But where sin entered, grace did much more abound. What then shall we make of this? Shall we continue in our sins so that grace may abound? God forbid, How shall the person who is dead to sin continue practising sin?' For a more detailed account of the apostle Paul's explanation, it is advisable to read all of chapters 4, 5 and 6, of Romans. Here's a thought to be going on with, if the whole world was to follow, or rather had been following the ridiculous doctrine of all of our sins having been 'nailed to the cross', there would be very few if any, people left alive by now, the worldwide 'free for all' that would have existed would have succeeded in wiping out the human race, exactly what Satan has been trying to do for thousands of years. (And without our all-powerful God's timely interventions throughout the ages, Satan would have accomplished his murderous mission by now.) Unfortunately, (for the world) this world is now in the 'end time', the Lord God is loosening His protection and allowing the forces of evil to run their course, thus ensuring that end-time prophecies will eventually come true and this, sadly, includes the 'falling away' of once true churches of God as outlined in 2 Thessalonians 2: 3. it reads 'Do not let any man deceive you by any means, for that day (the day of the Lord's vengeance) shall not come except that there is a falling away first (of true church bretheren) and that the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition.' And so it is that now, what is left of the faithful bretheren of these few, true churches of God, are getting older and older, certainly at the time of writing , and there is very little, if any, young blood coming in. Honestly, what do you think, do you think that Jesus Christ recognizes any of the so-called `saints` days or even the `saints` themselves that mankind has created for himself? We should realise that quite apart from the true saints that both God the Father and Jesus Christ God the Son recognize, (which by the way have not got any God ordained days dedicated to them) apart from these true saints and those of us who are yet to be recognized as saints by the Lord, all the other `saints` are quite literally Satanically inspired, created by the mainstream, professing `christian` churches of this world. They have invented for themselves a `saint` for practically every conceivable occasion, they must run into thousands, and if they haven't yet got a `saint` for saints and they are reading this then I would suppose that they will now be considering that one as well. It could all be dismissed as comical if it were not so serious, and therein lies the danger. Satan is not so stupid as to think that people will believe lies and nothing but lies, he likes to add a sprinkling of the truth here and there, and truth that is used in this way, to add weight to a lie, is in danger in the eyes of the public at large, of becoming a part of that lie when the lie is uncovered. Just look at the state of politics and politicians, prime examples of how to lose public confidence and credibility, and this is exactly what Satan wants these so-called `christian` churches to be doing in direct and bare faced opposition to the very commandments of the one high God. These false Christian churches and their multitudinous and deceived congregations have been removed even more steps further away from the one true God because of their obsession with their idolatrous `saints`, don't they understand that anything that they allow to come between themselves and God (and this especially applies to their priests and ministers) is, in God's eyes, a vile and abominable sin? Did Jesus suffer an agonizing death on the torture stake (thus literally and spiritually tearing down the veil that separated the congregation from the holly of hollies so that mankind could have direct access to God the Father without the need of ANY intermediaries) just so that future generations would bow down to trumped-up churchmen and lumps of plaster, stone and wood? Let's take a look at the words of Matthew 18: 6-7. `But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it would be better for them if a millstone were to be hung around their neck and that they were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of offences, but it must needs be that offences will occur but woe to them by whom the offence comes.` Is Jesus solely referring to `little children` in these words? or is He, as He so often does in His teachings, alluding to a bigger picture? He is of course referring to the people in general who have come to believe in Him and His ideals but, because of the Satanically motivated teachings and perverted behaviour of others, especially priests and ministers, they have decided to have nothing more to do with what they quite rightly perceive as their perverted doctrines and morals, all of which have been and are being lyingly and blasphemously perpetrated in the name of God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ. It is obvious to me and to others that these `christian` churches do not have the faith to accept the one true God and to worship Him only, no, they like to `hedge their bets`, just in case, they have had to invent many demi-gods for themselves including the embracing and the worshipping of `saints` and `relics` and idols and demons, yes demons (devils), let's take a look at 1 Corinthians 10: 19-20. `What am I saying then, that the idol is of any importance? or that which is offered to idols is of any importance? Well I say that the things that the gentiles offer up to idols they offer up to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have anything to do with demons.`

Need any more convincing? well let`s have a look at Revelation 9: 20.
`And the rest of the men that were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils (demons) and idols of gold and silver and brass and stone and of wood which neither can see nor hear nor walk.` The trouble is that mostly people do not stop and think for themselves, their lazy and oftentimes indifferent attitude and approach to true religion, ie., Christianity, sometimes beggars belief, take for example the person who was making a nice profit, thank you very much, at the roman catholic `shrine` of Knock, in Southern Ireland, what do you suppose that he was selling? well, believe it or not, he was selling SIGNED PHOTOGRAPHS of `saint` Patrick. We can see from such examples that people who are caught up in religious fervour do not stop to think things through for themselves, they leave all of their spiritual salvation in the hands of their false `christian` churches and their false and perverted priests and ministers. So, seeing that they are so free and easy with their very eternal spiritual salvation, I wonder how many are also so free and easy with the earthly life that they have at the moment? I wonder how many, for example, would refuse to join the armed forces citing as the reason..`I`m not having anybody dictating to ME what I should or should not do by giving ME orders, a person`s mind is not their own in the armed forces..` but they cannot see, or they care not, that giving their mind over to their priests and ministers is what they do all the time, but it`s much worse than that, they are placing their very souls into the hands of a Satanically run system, they are in far greater danger of being killed than they ever would be on a battle field, and I don`t just mean physically killed. Having given their salvation over to another`s mind or keeping, what they then fail to realize is that that person has in turn given their mind and salvation over to the keeping of another person higher up in the pyramidal hierarchical chain of command, until, at the top, and I mean the VERY top of this command system, is to be found their `high priest`, Satan, the devil. Satan rules supreme over his churches and the people caught up within their Satanic systems and he will not relinquish any of these wretched and deceived people willingly, let`s a look at Romans 16: 17-18. ... `Now I beseech you bretheren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the teaching which you have learned, and avoid them, for they are such that do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ but their own bellies, and by the use of good words and fair speeches deceive the minds of the unsuspecting.` So, moving on, what should we suppose that Jesus makes of the festivals celebrated in His name? let`s take the so-called `easter` for example, does He recognize it? oh, I`m sure He does, all of it, and I`m also sure that He recognizes it as being NONE of His, why not? well, let`s start with the first of the observances of this pagan feast, (for that is what it is) the `easter sunrise`. This constitutes a set of devotions whereby the minister or priest encourages his congregation to face towards the east, towards the rising sun and pray, to whom I wonder?, Now is this a Christian, Christ ordained act of worship? No, it is for all intents and purposes sun worship, I`d bet a penny to a pound that any primitive, uneducated human being would recognize it as such. Now as for the `easter bunny` and the `easter eggs` well, they are all pagan fertility symbols, can you see where this is leading? but more importantly, can you see where it has come from? Regarding the ritual of the giving of the `easter eggs`, this thinly veiled fertility ceremony, let`s have a look at something from a reference book which goes by the title of, `The Catholic Encyclopaedia``Easter eggs: The symbolic meaning of a new creation of mankind by Jesus risen from the dead was probably an invention of later times, the custom may have its` origins in paganism for a great many pagan customs celebrating the return of spring gravitated towards easter. The egg is the emblem of the germinating life of early spring. (Now get this next bit) The `easter rabbit` lays the eggs.(????) The `easter rabbit` lays the eggs for which reason they are hidden in a nest in a garden.` Talk about adult fairy tales, but then again, thinking about it, they would have to be `adult`, because I`m sure that an educated child would not have come up with such trite hogwash. The encyclopaedia goes on to state that an `easter fire` is lit upon the mountain tops and that the original pagan practices associated with `easter` were never really abolished but rather they were adapted and absorbed into the roman catholic church under the guise of `christian` festivals. An example of this subterfuge is the way that these sacrificial `easter fires` are explained and re-invented in the encyclopaedia, quote: `The fiery column that guided the Israelites in the wilderness and also to the resurrection of Christ, the new fire on holy saturday is drawn from flint, symbolising the resurrection by the light of the world from the tomb closed by a stone.` Well, there we have it, can you see ANY sense in that? let alone any Christian sense, no, it`s just a load of Satanic `smoke and mirrors`, and this bit that is quoted here is just a snippet, it goes on and on, and the topic of `easter` itself would take more time to write about than I have to give in this one message. Suffice it for now then that I will give you the true derivation of the name `easter`. It comes from the ancient (and still widely practised by the world`s so-called `christian` churches) Babylonian Mystery Religion, yes, from ancient Babylon, Assyria. These peoples worshipped the pagan gods `Ashtorath` and `ishtar`/ `aester`, which is another name for the wife of `Nimrod`. Nimrod is the person who started the Babylonian system and its` corresponding Babylonian Mystery Religion. Among the Babylonians the name `Ashtorath` is pronounced by leaving the final syllable silent and was subsequently translated into the English language as `Ishtar`. The letter `I` was then substituted and given the English long `E` sound and the `H` was dropped and thus it became the current word `easter` and proclaimed a `christian` festival. Would Jesus Christ call this abominable festival of `easter` a Christian festival? and if He did, would He then call Himself a `christian`? well, no, because Jesus Christ knows what true Christianity is and He is not a liar and `He cannot deny Himself` as it states in 2 Timothy 2: 13. As all of the true churches of God know, `easter`, is not the only false `christian` ceremony, perhaps the biggest and the most world-wide celebrated is the blasphemously entitled `christmas`, which as any common dictionary will tell its` reader, is a thinly disguised, pagan Roman festival known as the `saturnalia`. Now, as bad as it is from a true Christian point of view, the celebration of `christmas` has degenerated even more from the time when it was first instigated in so much that it has now almost entirely lost any `christian` significance (as erroneous as that was anyway) at all, and `christmas` is now being celebrated as a pagan festival in its` own right. Inform somebody of the fact that `christmas` is not in fact Jesus Christ`s birthday and they will simply shrug it off, saying that that know that anyway or they`ll say that they don`t believe in Jesus but hey, a party is a party, and `feelgood time is `feelgood` time, no matter what the reason for it. So the `christian` peoples of this world have their `easter` and their `christmas` and their `saints` days and their `sundays` and their hallowe`ens, oh yes, their hallowe`ens, now how can anybody in their right thinking mind attribute anything righteous or Christ-like, to this Satanic abomination? It is nothing more than a completely evil concoction comprising as it does of goblins, trolls, witches, demons, sorcerers, warlocks, decaying and skeletal corpses, zombies, and the blackmail and threat of the American introduced `trick or treat`, a comparatively recent innovation that one, yes, Satan is still working on his projects, keeping them up to date on a regular basis. Death rules supreme in this festival, and we all should know who the `god` of death is. The celebration of this festival is in direct opposition to love and life, all in fact that God the Father and God the Son Jesus Christ, stand for. So where did this detestable festival originate? well, briefly, I will tell you. This night of `hallowe`en long predates Christianity, (but NOT the laws of God) and it is of course completely pagan in origin and it is the pagan belief that this night of `hallowe`en` is the one night of the year when demons and the `living dead` are to be (more or less) openly abroad and accessible upon this earth. History indicates that the main celebrations of `hallowe`en were purely of the `druids`, the pagan priesthood of Ireland and western Europe, and this is further substantiated by the fact that in certain parts of Ireland, hallowe`en is still known as `oidhch Shamhna` or in English, `the vigil of Saman`, Saman being the `lord of the dead` a directly opposed position to our Lord, our true Christian God, Jesus Christ, who has stated quite categorically in the scriptures in Matthew 22: 32. ..`I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, God is not the God of the dead but of the living.` and if we read Luke 20: 38. it states..`For He is not a God of the dead but of the living, for all live to Him.` But, and no surprise here, this festival of `hallowe`en was also celebrated by the Romans, they held their celebrations in honour of `pomona`, not on Oct.31st. but on Nov.1st. Well, we who keep the correct beginning and ending of the day (sunset to sunset) know that both the 31st. of Oct. and the 1st. of Nov. are more or less at the same time come their respective ending and beginning. As with so many other pagan ceremonies, `hallowe`en` centres around the erroneous belief of the absolute immortality of the human soul. True Christians know that this belief has no biblical or scriptural foundation, in fact the scriptures tell us of just the opposite, let`s have a read of Matthew 10: 28. ..`And fear not them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul, but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both body and soul in hell.` So the deceived of this world cling to the erroneous belief that their `loved ones` having died, are now existing in the world of the `living dead` some believe that these `living dead` now survive on in the form of `low` animal life such as insects and so they perform their `hallowe`en` rituals in the hope of somehow appeasing and coaxing the `lord of the dead` (Satan, of course) to allow their departed `loved ones` to achieve a higher status of life form. So, basically, that is what `hallowe`en` is really about, can anybody reading this see anything remotely Christian in any of this? No, of course not, sorry to say but it is demonic in the extreme, and yet it continues to be sanctified and approved of and practised by the world`s mainstream so-called `christian` churches, particularly the roman catholic church and its` mirror sister churches (they usually like to go under the guise of `protestant` or `anglican`) for this festival of `hallowe`en` is one of their most solemnly observed occasions. What then should we suppose that the one true God has to say, if anything, about these false `christian` holy days? Let`s look at what the scriptures tell us in Amos 5: 21-23. ..`I hate, I despise YOUR feast days and I will not accept the burnt incense offered during YOUR appointed assemblies. Even though you offer Me burned offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them, neither will I accept the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Take away from Me the noise of YOUR songs for I do not want to hear the music that you make.` `I hate, I despise YOUR feast days...` and that of course includes the real darling and money spinner of these false churches, `christmas.` As most of us already know, the apostles were first called Christians at a place called Antioch, we can read this in Acts 11: 26. ..`And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.` We can suppose rightly that this was not a name given to them directly from God the Father, or by Jesus, even so the apostles did not object to being called Christians and neither did they offer any scriptural reasons not to be known as such, rather I would think, they wore the `badge` with honour. But alas, in our present and ever more materialistic day and age, to be known as a Christian is to be adorned with all of the vile trappings which have become associated with the title, such as all of the detestable, sinful and Satanic Babylonian mystery religion`s anti-Christian ceremonies and brutalities practised by many of its` priests masquerading as ministers of God, let`s have a look at 2 Corinthians 11: 13-15. ..`For such are false apostles deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.` Ask anybody on the street who is a non Christian or just totally secular, what they think that a person who calls themselves a `christian` really stands for, because these people are the ones who are able to stand back and see all that has been and is being blasphemously done in the name of Christianity, in the name of Jesus Christ and they will tell you that they want none of it, and indeed, what right thinking follower of Jesus Christ, would? But a word of caution, even though the `christian` priests and ministers of this world are responsible for the current shameful state of modern day perceived `christianity`, they are not totally to blame. God does not regard the people as totally innocent in this state of affairs, indeed, He says that the people..`love to have it so..` let`s read it in Jeremiah 5: 30-31. ..`An appalling and horrible thing is committed in the land, the prophets prophesy falsely and the priests bear rule by their laws and My people love to have it so, and what will you do in the end thereof?` and we can marry that scripture up with John 3: 19. `..And this is the judgment, that light is come into the world, but men loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil.` And we can marry to this Jeremiah 9: 6. ..`Your living is in the midst of deceit, and through deceit they refuse to know Me, says the Lord.` So, what according to the scriptures, is to be mankind`s reward for putting the trust of their very salvation into the hands of their priests and ministers? Well, we have God`s judgment on this, let`s read Jeremiah 17: 5. ..`Thus says the Lord God, cursed be the man who puts his trust in man and makes flesh his saviour and whose heart departs from the Lord.` And so, to come back to the title of this message, `Is Jesus a `Christian?` or rather a `christian?`, well the answer should now be logically...no. Those of us who try to follow as best as we can the teachings of Jesus Christ are the true Christians and there are not many of us walking this earth at the present time, in fact, I would suppose that we are not considered to be Christians at all by the current mainstream `christian` churches and their adherents or the current world perception of `christianity`. As I mentioned earlier, we know that Jesus `cannot deny Himself`, 2Timothy 2: 12-13. tells us that, but also He cannot (how can I phrase this?) He cannot follow Himself, because He is the one who leads, leads by example, and so by His example we, are to follow Him, and so logically it is the followers of Jesus Christ who are the true Christians, but that aside, Jesus Christ Himself would not take up the banner of a false `christian` identity attached to a multi-billion dollar money spinning organization that is currently running the biggest extortion racket that the world has ever experienced and that is all being abominably and blasphemously perpetrated in His holy name. And so to sum up, Jesus Christ makes His triumphant return to this earth at His second coming, and He may well have this to say to all of the false `christian` churches and their adherents when he does return, let`s look at Matthew 7: 21-23. ..`Not everyone that says to Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that does the will of My Father which is in heaven. Many will say in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name? and in Your name have we not cast out demons? and in your name done many wonderful works? And I will profess to them, I never knew you, depart from Me, you workers of evil.` Jesus may even go on to say something like, ...You have abused and blasphemed My holy name and dragged it through the mire of lies and deceit but now I have come to reclaim It, for It is of Me and of those that are Mine... Then, I think, bretheren, and only then, will the title of Christian, be once more accorded the honour which it once had when it was first used, and not only by a few this time, but by all who live upon the earth.
